CHAMPAGNE
BOLLINGER
 MAISON FONDEE EN 1829

EXCLUSIVE TO GLENGARRY

We're into the Sparkling Season, when we all get excused a slight excess in behaviour. Take note, we're not encouraging foolishness, it'll happen anyway; but we are saying, dang it all, it's been a hard year, let's indulge a little.

So, buy Champagne Bollinger in November or December, and you'll go in the draw to win a sumptuous weekend for two at the luxurious Black Barn cottage in Hawke's Bay.

How will you get there? Take the Aston Martin, a DB9, no less. Yours for the whole weekend in fact, and you can practice your James Bond signature with your new Montblanc fountain pen whilst sipping on your complimentary magnum of Bollinger.

Luxury? Necessity, we reckon.*

A MONTHLY SELECTION OF DELICIOUS, DEPENDABLE REDS AND WHITES
WHERE THE PALATE, NOT THE PRICE TAG, PACKS A PUNCH

Brunton ORGANIC GISBORNE Chardonnay 2009

was $18.90 now $14.90 13871

CASE OF 12 ONLY $14.40 A BOTTLE

100% organically produced

While this is a relatively recent label to appear in the crowded market square, Kristen and Richard Searle, along with Richard's family, have been grape growers, cultivators of the vine, what have you, for more than a decade. Kristen and Richard came back from smoggy Europe, soaked up sunny Gisborne and set about producing organically farmed, dynamic, personality-laden wines such as this. Tropically fruit-driven, lined with mineral riches, tarted up with citrus, a delicious charmer of not insignificant style and class.

Coupers Shed

HAWKE'S BAY Sauvignon Blanc 2010

was $22.90 now $15.90 12628

CASE OF 6 ONLY $15.40 A BOTTLE

From a great vintage in Hawke's Bay

The 2009 was Marlborough magic, but they've shifted north for sourcing fruit, which is a wizard decision as (a) Hawke's Bay in 2010 was a cracking vintage and (b) sorcerer/winemaker Tony Robb lives there. I mean, think of the carbon footprint if he were winging to Marlby every second weekend to check on his fruit bunches. Great texture, singing fruit flavours and a perfect balance of acid.

Farmers Market

MARLBOROUGH Pinot Gris 2009

was $19.90 now $14.90 11552

CASE OF 12 ONLY $14.40 A BOTTLE

Collective winemaking

Without getting all Marxist about it, and we mean Karl, not Groucho, FM is a kind of co-operative, with some of the best viticulturists forwarding small parcels from some forgotten field to some of our best winemakers, to create premium, uniquely styled expressions without fuss or fanfare. This sumptuous Pinot Gris has a touch of the sweetie about it, is intensely and tropically flavoured and fragranced, and finds its way home on a lush texture of quite indescribable delight. Enjoy with a few, um, comrades.

Trinity Hill

HAWKE'S BAY Syrah 2009

was $18.90 now $14.90 19286

CASE OF 12 ONLY $14.40 A BOTTLE

NZ Syrah, the new Pinot?

With a splash (4%) of Viognier to mix it all up, this sees some oak, some stainless steel, and some in the bottom of John Hancock's gummies. Blackberry, spice and peppery Syrah fruit dominates, but gently, though, you don't want to come over all serious; you'll put the girls off, next you'll be talking about moving in, and the romance is rid, I say, rid! Great with lamb.

Crossroads HAWKE'S BAY
Chardonnay 2009

was $22.50 now $15.90 12399

CASE OF 12 ONLY $15.40 A BOTTLE

The 2008 strapped some gold to its back at the Air Noo Zild Awards last year and sold out faster than you could say, 'gosh, that sold out fast.' Oh-nine is a peach of a wine, opening out as it does like an unfolding blossom with richness and finesse, and a substance (14.5%) to its charms that suggests a few years in the bunker wouldn't go astray either.

Brookfields OHITI ESTATE

HAWKE'S BAY Cabernet Sauvignon 2008

was $19.90 now $14.90 11336

CASE OF 12 ONLY $14.40 A BOTTLE

One of Hawke's Bay's classic reds

Do you know that there was no word for 'nostalgia' before 1900? Fond remembrances being a 20th century conceit, we'll clutch them to our heaving bosom and recall earlier vintages of this long-standing gem, vintages that were remarkably consistent with this, the most consistent of offerings, so under-priced, so adept at over-delivering, so very Brookfields. Ripe, rich, complex. A classic.

Sears Road

HAWKE'S BAY Merlot Malbec 2008

was $23.90 now $17.90 14370

CASE OF 12 ONLY $17.40 A BOTTLE

Almost an even split M & M which is kinda cool, Malbec oft being overlooked, yet it can really hit its straps in the boundless Bay sunshine. Floral on the nose, good and ripe and soft, like a cheese, only it's a different colour. Enough punch for a putsch should an overthrow be required, and berry flavours lead you comfortably through the crimson tunnel to the flavoursome end.

SPY VALLEY

SPY VALLEY GENERAL MANAGER, BLAIR GIBBS

SPY VALLEY'S CHIEF WINEMAKER, PAUL BOURGEOIS

Spy Valley is a family-owned and operated wine company, established in 1993 by Bryan and Jan Johnson when they planted the Johnson Estate vineyard in the Lower Waihopai Valley. The company's name was inspired by the nearby international satellite monitoring station, part of the Echelon Global Network. The station's large white domes are clearly visible in the Waihopai Valley, which locals know colloquially as Spy Valley.

Initially the Johnsons operated as contract growers, but in 2000 they released their first vintage under the Spy Valley label. Since 2003 the wines have been produced at the company's own state-of-the-art winery. Boasting separate red and white wine facilities, the operation is totally self sufficient, providing excellent quality control from harvest through to despatch.

Chief Winemaker Paul Bourgeois – a Kiwi in spite of his French name – joined Spy Valley in 2007. 'The bulk of our wines are produced from estate vineyards, but we also source some Sauvignon Blanc from selected growers, which provides us with wider flavour profiles,' says Paul.

General Manager Blair Gibbs states, 'Our policy from the start has been to produce premium quality wines that over-deliver consistently.' It is a policy that is obviously working; the company has earned numerous awards and accolades and exports eighty percent of its production to markets all over the world. They describe themselves with good reason as 'a family-owned, global, boutique winery.'

Spy Valley

MARLBOROUGH Pinot Gris 2010

RRP $24.90 now $18.90 18333

CASE OF 12 ONLY $18.40 A BOTTLE

A blend of fruit from the Johnson Estate Vineyard and outsourced growers. A small portion was fermented in seasoned oak to provide extra dimension and some of it underwent malolactic fermentation to add complexity. The distinctive pear, stonefruit and spice aromas complement a slightly off-dry palate with good weight, lush honeyed fruit flavours and a mealy texture. A moderately complex, finely balanced wine that will continue to develop over the next couple of years.

Spy Valley

MARLBOROUGH Sauvignon Blanc 2010

RRP $21.90 now $15.90 18313

CASE OF 12 ONLY $15.40 A BOTTLE

Derived from fruit harvested entirely from Spy Valley's low-yield vineyard, cool fermented with selected yeasts in stainless steel tanks and lees aged for a prolonged period to add textural mouthfeel. It is a lovely, reflective, pale yellow wine with forward fruit aromas of passionfruit and tropical fruit, a dash of mineral and a hint of celery. The generous flavours are neatly balanced by a lime finish. Ideal as an aperitif, great with seafood.

Spy Valley

MARLBOROUGH Chardonnay 2008

RRP $24.90 now $18.90 18331

CASE OF 12 ONLY $18.40 A BOTTLE

A successful contender on the award circuit, this Chardonnay was whole bunch pressed, barrel fermented, lees stirred and matured for twelve months in oak. Partial malolactic conversion has given the wine a silky mouthfeel that enhances the ripe stonefruit flavours. Complete, weighty, yet elegantly styled, with all component parts nicely integrated and balanced by a fine, crisp, clean finish.

Spy Valley

MARLBOROUGH Riesling 2009

RRP $24.90 now $18.90 18314

CASE OF 12 ONLY $18.40 A BOTTLE

The good news is, this wine, which has an outstanding show record, is still developing. The Riesling grapes were cool fermented in stainless steel tanks to retain fruit purity and freshness. The inviting bouquet shows lovely spring blossom, pipfruit and lime aromas. The palate is alive with rich grapefruit-like flavours, gathering momentum through the mid-palate and finishing on a crisp, slightly sweet note.

VINTAGE Champagne

FOR WHEN THE OCCASION DEMANDS THE BEST

Drappier GRANDE SENDRÉE Vintage 2000

was $110.00 now $89.00 43507

Drappier's Grande Sendrée is a 55% Pinot Noir, 45% Chardonnay blend derived from the oldest and best parcels of hand-sorted fruit. The ultra-fine bubbles and lovely fruity, floral and spice aromas are embellished by nuances of caramel biscuit. The palate is softly elegant with a fine, crisp finish. Superb prestige cuvée.

Bollinger LA GRANDE ANNÉE Vintage 2000

was $230.00 now $160.00 40811

Pinot Noir, Chardonnay and Pinot Meunier harvested from grand and premier cru vineyards. Five years of lees ageing and the high proportion of Pinot Noir fruit has given the wine exceptional depth and richness. Beautifully complex, with a smooth mousse, intensely ripe fruit and hints of chocolate and spice on the nose and palate. Exceptional.

Dom Pérignon Vintage 2002

was $326.00 now $199.00 47234

Following his first sip of champagne, the 17th-century Benedictine monk who perfected the champagne process supposedly proclaimed, 'I am drinking the stars.' The champagne named in his honour is indeed a star, an equal blend of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, a broad, powerful wine, elegantly balanced, with the fruit held masterfully in focus by a swirl of citrus and a silky mousse. The most famous of the prestige cuvées

Piper Heidsieck Vintage 2000

was $99.00 now $86.00 48122

A favourite of royalty and Hollywood, Piper-Heidsieck has won countless medals throughout its distinguished history. Matured on lees for five years, this brilliantly exotic wine displays aromas of honeyed pear, vanilla and mushroom. The lively yet smoothly textured palate shows fine intensity and a long, spicy finish.

Veuve Clicquot Vintage 2002

was $118.00 now $96.00 49815

Veuve Clicquot's vintage champagne is a 60% Pinot Noir, 33% Chardonnay, 7% Pinot Meunier blend. With its lively and lengthy effervescence and bouquet of citrus, cherry and brioche, the elegantly structured, richly flavoured palate is wonderfully balanced, with a soft, velvet-like character and a lingering finish.

Charles Heidsieck Vintage 2000

was $129.90 now $110.00 41547

Charles is always a class act. This is a splendid vintage champagne produced from equal proportions of Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier, with 40% reserve wines added for extra complexity. It displays lovely interwoven aromas of stonefruit, citrus and crème brûlée, while the broadly flavoured palate has a luxuriant mouthfeel balanced by a fresh, lime-accented finish.

Sir Winston Churchill Vintage 1999

was $280.00 now $245.00 48234

Ahh, that Winston: 'Remember gentlemen, it's not just France we are fighting for, it is Champagne!' It's not surprising that Churchill's favourite champagne house named their prestige cuvée in his honour. The wine has a lightly honeyed, polished fruit nose supported by a wisp of smoke. It is an elegantly composed style with a robust mouthfeel. Outstanding example of the genre.

A RANGE OF SPARKLERS FROM ACROSS THE GLOBE TO COMPLETE YOUR SUMMER CELEBRATIONS

Whitecliff Brut Cuvée NV

was $17.90 now $8.90 18001

CASE OF 12 ONLY $7.90 A BOTTLE

Great case deal at $1 off each bottle

Brut being dry rather than aggressive, course, and cuvée but a blend, just in case and all. At a piffing $8.90, the cynics among you may wonder if perhaps the cam belt will need changing soon, or whether she'll get a warrant. Fear not: it's smashing sparkling, priced to spice up your festive niceties.

NEW ZEALAND Te Hana Reserve Cuvée NV

was $17.90 now $15.90 19075

CASE OF 6 ONLY $14.90 A BOTTLE

Fabbo bulbous bottle, shaped like harem pants; remember them? Rod Stewart, what were you thinking? Pale gold with a fruit-driven nose, it smells like it'll be sweet, then there are lovely musk aromas, like that ground deer penis powder that's meant to make you virile until you're 208 (back to Rod again). Great acid framework for the unfurling fruit, slight sweetness to the overall proceedings with a little yeast to balance the fruit. Very drinkable.

AUSTRALIA De Bortoli DB Sparkling Brut NV

was $19.90 now $9.90 20828

CASE OF 12 ONLY $9.40 A BOTTLE

Very good Australian sparkler

Another piece of one-directional discounting (that'd be down, boy) puts this splendid Aussie sparkling within easy reach of nigh on everyone. Even people with really really short arms. Raise a glass and you'll get bread-tinged appley fruit, much refreshment and a finish as crisp as the ten dollar note you just pocketed.

NEW ZEALAND Allan Scott Sparkling Sauvignon Blanc NV

was $21.90 now $15.90 17482

CASE OF 12 ONLY $15.40 A BOTTLE

You can just see those early adopters, can't you, their prejudices transformed, mouthful by glorious mouthful: 'Those Kiwis think their Sauvignon is so good that they can add some sparkle and expect us to enjoy it. Well, I won't be fooled, Fred, I didn't come down in the... oh. Rather good, isn't it? Kinda Sauvignon-y but uplifting and, ooh, um, yes, well, I will, actually... oh, just a half, 'Eat, Pray, Love' is on at Leicester Square tonight and I'm scared I'll fall asleep...

SPAIN Freixenet EXTRA Brut Cava NV

was $18.50 now $9.90 85019

CASE OF 12 ONLY $9.40 A BOTTLE

More is less here, with the serious attention this gets manifesting in delicacy and elegance, rather than brut(e) strength. It's gossamer-light, with melon and citrus notes carried effortlessly along by the poised palate. Fresh and vivacious without being smarmy or conceited, it pairs deliciously with poolside poodles, salmon blinis and other flashy accoutrements.

FRANCE Saint-Meyland Méthode Traditionnelle NV

was $23.90 now $16.90 43010

CASE OF 12 ONLY $16.40 A BOTTLE

Made just outside Champagne

Did you grow up with comments like, now you wouldn't want to over-egg the pudding, would you? Or, ooh, no, no cream for me, that'd be gilding the lily. What arrant, small-minded nonsense. Stick another egg in; gild that lily, drink French méthode every day if you want to. Restraint? At this price?

SPAIN Perelada Brut Reserva Cava NV

was $19.90 now $14.90 88051

CASE OF 6 ONLY $14.40 A BOTTLE

★★★★ & Best Buy - Cuisine

We may have mentioned, this is the official sparkling of the Court of King Juan Carlos and he's not known to suffer fools, in human or liquid form. Exotic nose with fruits, some dried, some not, some still wet leading down the raisiny, grapey path. Dryly delicious with a slight riesling-type character finish.

ITALY Santa Margherita Prosecco DOC NV

was $22.90 now $17.90 62534

CASE OF 6 ONLY $17.40 A BOTTLE

While 'Santa Margherita!' may sound like the answer to the question, what do you say when you hit your thumb with a hammer, it is in fact the family name of this long-standing producer of prodigiously high quality Prosecco. While well-fruited in fragrance, it is dry in execution, and a brilliant accompaniment to dabbling in very little at all.

FRANCE Arrogant Frog
LILY PAD PINK Sparkling Rosé NV

was $21.00 now $17.90 43975

CASE OF 6 ONLY $17.40 A BOTTLE

French style on show

It's all well and good for the French to get all laissez-faire about frogs and bang them on a label in tie and tails, but they do also fry them in garlic and eat their legs. Don't they? This is an excellent summer drink from sunny southern France, expertly crafted and a perfect combo of frivolity, flavour and French flair.

NEW ZEALAND Waipara Hills
Marlborough Cuvée NV

was $21.90 now $18.90 10307

CASE OF 12 ONLY $18.40 A BOTTLE

★★★★★ Cuisine

Definite Sauvignon aromas, herbaceous fruit, grassiness, citricity, some heaving blossom, and she's crisp on the palate. Appley and mouthfilling, it's appealingly tart and refreshing with plenty to offer, each component revealed a bit at a time, like those Russian dolls, Sergei. The good news is, this is great drinking, it's $18.90 and Christmas is coming. What more do you want, a puce-coloured iPad?

NEW ZEALAND Waipara Hills
Southern Cuvée NV

was $21.90 now $18.90 10306

CASE OF 12 ONLY $18.40 A BOTTLE

Clever use of Riesling fruit

Being sparkling Riesling this is the yin to the Marlborough yang, the Richards to the Jagger, the Ginger Spice to the Sporty Spice (that's enough. Ed). The nose is citrus, tart, while a little residual sugar keeps a quiet eye on things on the palate. There is a hint of honey, yet it finishes crisp; like an apple, perhaps.

NEW ZEALAND Allan Scott
CECILIA Brut NV

was $26.50 now $19.90 17397

CASE OF 6 ONLY $19.40 A BOTTLE

Named after Allan's wife

All has wallpapered the label in his favourite floral flock which, if you've been drinking around town, is all the rage of interior décorists du jour. They love one flock wall, and you'd have to be careful how you said that after loading up on Cecilia. It has that 'proper' winemaker's brady/yeasty/leesy influence, and an undercurrent of toasty richness that supports the flood of fruit that sits above it.

NEW ZEALAND Allan Scott
LES JOUES ROUGES Brut Rosé NV

was $26.50 now $19.90 17422

CASE OF 6 ONLY $19.40 A BOTTLE

A stylish sparkling ginga, Goddamn! Made from a distinctive Pinot Noir clone and designed to augment any activities you may have forecast for the coming heatwave. Slip, slop, slap, pop. Vivacious with voluptuous raspberry and strawberry fruits that just about spill out of their cups in an effort to seduce you. The palate zings and sings, the flavours are a tide of summer florals and fruits that will have you meadow searching with much gusto. You'll feel like Keats.

NEW ZEALAND Allan Scott
BLANC DE BLANCS Reserve Brut NV

was $29.90 now $24.90 17421

CASE OF 6 ONLY $24.40 A BOTTLE

★★★★★ Cuisine

This is a way smarter wine than the asking price may suggest, with much thought given to winemaking processes, a single, distinctive vineyard ring-fenced for fruit selection, and being Chardonnay fruit only, a reliance on lees ageing and natural autolysis characters to add the substance to the style. Its fruit is crisp citrus which, when mingled with the slightly honeyed yeastiness, ensures an experience of understated yet well-defined delight.

NEW ZEALAND Daniel Le Brun
Méthode Traditionnelle Brut NV

was $31.00 now $25.90 12145

CASE OF 6 ONLY $25.40 A BOTTLE

Very popular NZ méthode

This is quite a rich style, these days, with significant yeast and Marmite characters and a delicious burnt caramel tinge to it all. The overriding fruit is fresh, firm apples, defined and given an edge by some just-the-right-type-of-tart (so to speak) lemon/acid characters. An energetic, vigorous yet stylish expression.

NEW ZEALAND Cloudy Bay
PELORUS Sparkling Wine NV

was $39.90 now $29.90 12122

CASE OF 6 ONLY $29.40 A BOTTLE

This rather legendary winery is celebrating a quarter-century of turning out beautifully turned out wines, which, in the overall lifespan of New Zealand's modern winemaking history, is rather impressive. It's like two hundred years anywhere else. Oh, artistic licence and all that... Pelorus is a fantastic wine, Chardonnay accented with delicious apple pie and cream characters, delectably dry and sensorially stimulating. Crisp yet creamy, sophisticated yet approachable, a case buy dead cert at this price.

CASE OF 12 ONLY $14.40 A BOTTLE

Like their neighbours the Chalice, these guys are into protecting rare avians; in the case of the Southies it's a tern, hence the 'Project Your Tern' (cute). This is charming, in a dandyish fashion, with plenty of fruit-filled crevasses and a slight tomato-like savouriness adding further appeal. Firm fruit acid checks the run-aways, and ropes it all in with seamless genius.

This little Lucifer has garnered quite a following in its relatively short tenure on this earth, with good reason. Its pedigree is faultless, as is the winemaking, but it's the style that really appeals, and that's what hooks you in to this particular version of Dante's Inferno. Ruby-bright gushing berries flood your senses while a bewitching sturdiness holds you fast. And the silky 'sting' in its tail? Heavenly.

This was Coops' Pick recently in the trustworthy Listener, and he didn't choose it just because it's easy to spell. From the renowned Akarua label (geddit?) the slightly cooler vintage has seen the fruit amass a complexity and concentration that would make grown men (from other regions) weep. There's a knot of delicious fruit at the heart of this touching expression, with spice sprinkles and brush-strokes of wild flowers. Loads going on for so very little.

Made by Nga Waka

Be it a dugout, a pirogue or, most likely, a waka, this baby never sits around long enough to more than skim the surface of the shop floors, vintage to vintage. Why so? Oh, fruit? Flavour? Finesse? Not wanting to stick the oar in, but some of the $40-plus Pinot offerings across the land would pale into over-priced insignificance when tasted against this. So push the boat out and buy two. Cases.

Do you know the second biggest-selling author in the UK over the last decade was Roger Hargreaves? 'Really?' you chuckle, thinking, who?? JK Rowling rolled everyone, but the man who wrote the Mr. Men books got second! Meaning? These are our big hitters from the last year, and like Harry Potter and Little Miss Topsy, there's something for everyone and, as my Auntie Dib used to say as she mixed gingerale and peach schnapps, taste is subjective.

More of a judicious bellow than a full-on bull roar, the Megster is your classic Central Otago fruit explosion (well, it's not yours yet, till you've paid for it) where berry piles upon berry and red and black and all their characters are released in a soothingly smooth hush of crushed fruit, windblown herbs and subtle spice. A gentle dollop of the good earth seals the deal, Neil.

Is it me or do the twitching ears look a touch like two extended fingers? Just a thought. This collection of vineyards were once part of a big sheep station... think about it, it's not Dolly the Rabbit, is it? Heaven preserve us. Deliberately fashioned in a fun-filled – but not frivolous – drink-young, fruit-first style, you could say its flavours give your paws for thought, but that'd be silly. Surprisingly complex, not to be toyed with.

Four gold medals and a trophy

Mercy, that fruit's sweet on the intake, but I'm quick on the uptake and get its measure and then the rest just wades in, if you can wade elegantly. Silky-smooth with delicious berry and cherry flavours, a firm hand on the tannin tiller, but we're talking Pinot here so it's hardly knife and fork Shiraz; nay it's composed, poised and controlled, yet there lies within a smug grin that says let's go get dirty!

Consistently brilliant, a big seller

Berry and cherry fruit-first aromas, with graphite and dust right at the back... that nose is so heady and permeating, scruff of the necking you until you give in and go 'wallop me with the good stuff.' Seamless – weight, texture, flavour, tannin, structure, yet nothing seems out of place and the overall delivery is exquisite. At less than 30 bucks, it wouldn't be churlish not to buy a case, it'd be outright stupidity.

As Yogi Bear once said, it's tough to make predictions, especially about the future, and who would've guessed ten years ago that you'd be able to get top-flight Savvy for less than a bluey? Yet here it is, signed, sealed and well, ready for you to collect, gooseberries bounced with varietal herbaceousness and some acid-edged stonefruit into the bargain. And bargain it is.

Straight off the front foot, with driving green grass/asparagus/canned peas aromas. Being an Awatere wine accounts for the hint of flint, but the style, Kyle, is Internationally Renowned Marlborough all the way. The natural acid has dialled back a tad since initial release and the overpowering herbaceousness folds into the rest of the wine with much class.

The label tells me that Gambo, Binnie & Co have been foisting their mouthwash upon us for 21 years now. Hell, Gambo must've started when he was nine, by the look of 'em, shining with the ill-gotten glow of youth. This is more wetstone than some, yet still has herb and vegetative characters pushing through like weeds through your expensive cobbles. A broad spectrum of flavours spreads across the palate in even and delightful fashion. Smashing stuff.

Typically Marlborough; wet grass, mown lawns, this year's cricket pitch, tinned asparagus, and all at an exuberant intensity. The clean palate is crisp but not aggressive, the acid lines finely drawn, while a tropical front pushes the slow-moving herbaceousness through the palate to a citric end. Juicy and limey, it would be magnificent with shellfish, and it finishes searingly tart. As it should.

Some people would cut off their right arms to be ambidextrous, and the geniuses at Rockburn show similar talent as rare as the mountain air, producing a white that can hold its head aloft with their hugely reputable reds. Damn them for their excess of ability. Snowpeas, they reckon, tho that might just be altitude sickness - weighty, challenging, richly rewarding and tantalising with just-seared tuna, if there's any left.

Pinot Noir

The Edge MARTINBOROUGH Pinot Noir 2009

was $26.00 now $22.90 12544

CASE OF 12 ONLY $22.40 A BOTTLE

From Pinot pioneer, Larry McKenna

Larry McKenna's long experience of Martinborough's terroir led him to launch a range of exceptional single vineyard wines. The Edge Pinot Noir, however, is an immediately approachable Martinborough blend of fruit sourced primarily from Estate vineyards. A fruit-driven wine with subtle cherry, blueberry and spice notes on the nose, the supple palate displays a good depth of fruit supported by hints of mushroom and spice. Nicely rounded, fresh tasting, excellent value.

Sandihurst

CENTRAL OTAGO Pinot Noir 2007

was $34.90 now $25.90 10807

CASE OF 6 ONLY $25.40 A BOTTLE

Gold medal Pinot Noir

Operated by the Bosman family, Sandihurst is a Christchurch-based winery that also sources grapes from other regions. This Pinot comes from Gibbston in Central Otago and was produced by Sandihurst's Christchurch-born winemaker, Kirk Bray. It is a youthful, dark ruby wine with distinctive aromas of berry, bramble, mushroom, spice and wild thyme. The fruit and toasty oak are well integrated and supported by a fine tannin structure.

Kingsmill TIPPET'S DAM CENTRAL OTAGO Pinot Noir 2007

was $42.00 now $29.90 14955

Single vineyard Pinot

Hand harvested from Kingsmill's vineyard, sited on alluvial terraces located by Tippet's Dam. Following primary fermentation, the wine was transferred to barrels for the malolactic conversion and matured in French oak for eight months. It is a complex wine with an alluring bouquet of cherry, mulberry, spice and sweet oak. There are layers of ripe cherry and plum flavours, along with savoury/earthy notes that add complexity.

Pencarrow

MARTINBOROUGH Pinot Noir 2009

was $26.50 now $20.90 17052

CASE OF 12 ONLY $20.40 A BOTTLE

Made by Palliser Estate

Pencarrow is Palliser Estate's second label, but this wine is by no means second-class and, moreover, delivers great value. A beautifully realised wine with a bouquet expressing berry and plum aromas embellished by understated oak, it has excellent fruit, almost juicy in character, complemented by supple tannins and a velvety texture.

Gladstone 12,000 MILES WAIRARAPA Pinot Noir 2009

was $28.50 now $20.90 15115

CASE OF 12 ONLY $20.40 A BOTTLE

Produced in the Gladstone district

This wine is proof that there are other Wairarapa districts besides Martinborough that can produce top-quality Pinot Noir. The nose has lovely primary aromas of rose petals, developing to show raspberry, morello cherry and vanillin oak nuances. It is an attractive, juicy, fruit-laden wine with spicy notes and mellow tannins.

Martinborough VINEYARD TE TERA Pinot Noir 2009

was $31.90 now $24.90 13745

CASE OF 12 ONLY $24.40 A BOTTLE

New Zealand Pinot trail-blazers

Martinborough Vineyard arguably put New Zealand Pinot Noir on the map when it scooped the trophy for best Pinot Noir in the world at London's International Wine Challenge. Thirty years down the road, it is still producing world-class Pinots from its well established vineyards. This latest release has an alluring quality that is hard to resist, a velvety-smooth wine with tiers of sumptuous fruit that last forever.

Akarua

CENTRAL OTAGO Pinot Noir 2009

was $37.90 now $34.90 10210

CASE OF 12 ONLY $34.40 A BOTTLE

★★★★★ Cuisine

Under winemaker Matt Connell's steady hand, Akarua has become one of the most consistent producers in Central Otago. This single vineyard Pinot Noir has a fragrant bouquet displaying raspberry and violet aromas supported by spicy oak. The beautifully poised palate has an excess of sensuous berryfruit flavours, complemented by a svelte texture and a fine, lingering finish.

No.1 FAMILY ESTATE

CELEBRATING 30 YEARS OF WINEMAKING IN NEW ZEALAND

LA FAMILLE LE BRUN

No.1 Family Estate is a unique enterprise, the only wine company in New Zealand devoted solely to producing méthode traditionnelle wines, their cuvées the only ones in New Zealand to be produced by a Frenchman. Daniel Le Brun was born near Epernay in the village of Monthelon, where his family had been producing champagne since 1648. Daniel graduated from the famous School of Viticulture and Oenology at Avize, in the heart of the Champagne region.

In 1975 he visited New Zealand searching for greater opportunities. He found what he was looking for in Marlborough, and emigrated shortly thereafter. Three years later Daniel met his future wife, Adele, and in 1980 they purchased their first plot of land in Renwick. Under the Cellier Le Brun brand, they launched their first bottle-fermented sparkling wine to enormous success. Following some shareholding changes, Daniel and Adele decided to set up their own family-owned company, No.1 Family Estate.

Their winery is outfitted with state-of-the-art processing equipment imported from France. 'The free draining gravel soils and cool nights here are ideal for méthode wines. The art is in the blending, use of top quality grapes and attention to detail,' says Daniel. The wines have the stamp of authenticity and have won many awards.

The Le Brun family are currently celebrating thirty years of production in this country. Come along and join us as we toast the significant contribution they've made to New Zealand's winemaking heritage.

No.1 Family Estate NO.1 CUVÉE NV

was $43.00 now $29.90 12167

CASE OF 6 ONLY $29.40 A BOTTLE

Classic New Zealand méthode

No.1 Cuvée was the first wine produced by Adele and Daniel le Brun at their Marlborough winery, a blanc de blancs non-vintage produced, as the name suggests, entirely from Chardonnay fruit. Following the second fermentation, the wine was lees aged for two years prior to disgorgement. The bouquet is distinguished by lovely citrus and toasty yeast characters. Elegantly restrained, it has a silky texture and a long, finely tuned finish.

No.1 Family Estate NO.1 ROSÉ NV

was $51.00 now $42.90 12212

CASE OF 6 ONLY $42.40 A BOTTLE

Delicious salmon-coloured rosé produced from one hundred percent Pinot fruit, with enticing, nut-influenced strawberry and cherry aromas and flavours. Silky-smooth, finely balanced, with a crisp citrus edge.

No.1 Family Estate NUMBER 8 CUVÉE NV

was $32.00 now $24.90 12210

CASE OF 6 ONLY $24.40 A BOTTLE

The first release of this sophisticated, aperitif-style blend of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay was awarded five stars by Winestate, and went on to win the magazine's trophy for Sparkling Wine of the Year.

No.1 Family Estate CUVÉE VIRGINIE 2006

was $68.90 now $59.90 15207

TROPHY, ELITE GOLD AND PURE ELITE GOLD MEDAL RESULTS WILL BE ON OUR SITE FROM NOVEMBER 20
OR, SIGN UP FOR THE GLENGARRY EMAIL (ON OUR HOMEPAGE) AND WE'LL EMAIL YOU THE RESULTS AS SOON AS THEY'RE TO HAND

The Air New Zealand Wine Awards are considered to be the premier competition of the New Zealand wine industry. Open only to New Zealand producers, more than 1,500 wines are entered each year.

The wines are judged in separate varietal categories on the 20-mark system: three points for appearance, seven for bouquet/aroma and ten points for taste and general impression. With elite golds earning 19-20 points, gold medals are awarded to wines of outstanding quality that attain between 18.5 and 18.99 points; wines of excellent quality and a fine example in their class reaching between 17 and 18.49 points earn silver medals, and wines well above average and gaining between 16 and 16.99 points achieve bronze medal status.

Four years ago, 'pure' medals were introduced to acknowledge not only the superior quality of a wine, but also to indicate that the wine was sustainably grown and produced. The wines with the highest mark in a category are awarded the trophy for the best wine in that class. In a highly significant move, and as part of the New Zealand wine industry's commitment to sustainability, all 2010 vintage wine entered must be grown and produced sustainably.

Fresh, creamy, tinged with citrus

How Tracy Haslam manages to produce her wines while taking care of her ever-enlarging family is something of a mystery to us, but we are extremely pleased that she has worked it out, because her wines are always interesting. This rosé came from Merlot off the family's Ti Point Vineyard, with the fruit macerated overnight and cool fermented. The lovely strawberry and floral notes are underpinned by spice, while the palate is fresh, generous and creamy with a lingering, citrus-accented finish.

Akarua

A MONTHLY SELECTION OF AFFORDABLE FRENCH WINE FROM OUR EXTENSIVE RANGE

BEAUJOLAIS NOUVEAU

Beaujolais Nouveau is more than a wine, it's an event. On every third Thursday of November, wine aficionados the world over go to great lengths to be at the front of the queue to try the first wine of the European vintage. Nouveau was not officially recognised until 1951, but vin de l'année has been consumed locally for generations to celebrate the end of vintage.

Like other Beaujolais wines, Nouveau is made from the Gamay variety. Whole bunches of hand-harvested grapes are fermented in vats filled with carbon dioxide, producing a light bodied red wine with intense colour, low tannin levels and the fresh, fruity flavours that are the essence of Beaujolais Nouveau.

New Zealand is officially the first country in the world to welcome the third Thursday of November, so at Glengarry we will be joining the rest of the globe in celebrating France's first wine of the year. Come and join us!

Georges Duboeuf Beaujolais-Villages 2007

was $24.00 now $17.90 43895

CASE OF 12 ONLY $17.40 A BOTTLE

Fresh, vivacious, succulent

Like all Beaujolais, the Villages wines are made from hand-picked Gamay grapes and produced by the carbonic maceration method. Duboeuf's intimate knowledge of the thirty-eight villages entitled to this appellation allows them to be very selective when choosing the wines for blending. This vivacious wine opens with scents of strawberry and cherry combining with floral nuances. It has a well balanced, fruity and succulent mouthfeel packed with ripe fruit flavours.

Georges Duboeuf Saint-Amour 2007

was $30.00 now $24.90 42947

Any day can (and should) be Valentine's Day

According to legend, the name Saint-Amour is derived from a Roman soldier who founded a monastery overlooking the Saône River that flows through the region. A bright, ruby-coloured Beaujolais with a perfumed nose of redcurrant, blackberry and hints of mineral, it's a lively, versatile food wine with ripe fruit flavours that linger endlessly at the finish. Popular choice on Valentine's Day.

THURSDAY 18TH NOVEMBER AT GLENGARRY
VICTORIA PARK · TAKAPUNA · HERNE BAY · THORNDON

FRENCH CHARDONNAY

Laroche

SOUTH OF FRANCE Chardonnay 2008

was $22.00 now $17.90 48554

CASE OF 12 ONLY $17.40 A BOTTLE

Smart operators like Laroche have embraced the Vin Du Pays category created in the 1970s and introduced modern technology. Their Chardonnay has a classic varietal bouquet with a toasty edge. The nicely weighted palate displays distinctive stonefruit flavours complemented by nutty nuances and balanced by a slice of citrus.

DOMAINE Séguinot-Bordet Petit-Chablis 2008

was $31.00 now $22.90 40472

CASE OF 12 ONLY $22.40 A BOTTLE

A modern style of Chardonnay, cool fermented and lees aged to maximise the texture. It is a green-gold wine with a bouquet of floral and apple notes along with mineral and mealy nuances. The smooth, richly-flavoured palate is well balanced with a crisp and lively finish.

Jean Chartron

LE JAJA DE JEAN Chardonnay 2007

was $35.00 now $24.90 41436

CASE OF 12 ONLY $24.40 A BOTTLE

This domaine has access to top-quality fruit from the Puligny-Montrachet region. Barrel fermented and matured for six months in oak, it is an elegant, well balanced wine with fresh pipfruit/citrus aromas and flavours supported by understated oak and a delightfully smooth texture.

Gros Frère & Soeur Bourgogne Blanc 2007

was $62.00 now $39.90 43142

CASE OF 12 ONLY $39.40 A BOTTLE

Famous for its outstanding Grand Cru and Premier Cru Burgundies, Gros Frère & Soeur also produces some excellent generic wines. Matured in oak and minimally handled, this is ready to drink now; a middle weighted, well focused wine with distinctive citrus aromas and flavours underscored by hints of minerality.

Mount Hurtle SOUTH AUSTRALIA Grenache Shiraz Mourvèdre 2008

was $16.90 now $13.90 22152

CASE OF 6 ONLY $13.40 A BOTTLE

Made by Geoff Merrill

Vinted at the heritage-listed Mount Hurtle winery, built in 1897 by Moysten Owen and restored by Geoff Merrill a hundred years later, this Rhône-style blend is a deeply coloured wine with a bouquet combining blackberry, cherry and plum with white pepper and coffee notes. An approachable red with opulent fruit flavours, a smooth texture and easy tannin structure. Ready to drink.

Rolling CENTRAL RANGES Merlot 2008

was $21.90 now $16.90 20009

CASE OF 12 ONLY $16.40 A BOTTLE

From a stylish collection

Inspired by the rolling hills of New South Wales' Central Ranges, the Rolling wines are derived from mature vines located at 600 metres above sea level, some of the highest and coolest in Australia. This has a lively presence, with distinctive black cherry and blueberry aromas, and hints of liquorice peeking through. A softly structured wine, with the emphasis on lush fruit flavours building through the mid-palate and complemented by a mellow mouthfeel.

Taltarni

THREE MONKS

VICTORIA Cabernet Merlot 2006

was $28.00 now $19.90 27899

CASE OF 6 ONLY $19.40 A BOTTLE

A blend of 55% Cabernet Sauvignon, 44% Merlot and 1% Petit Verdot harvested from Taltarni's Pyrenees vineyard. It is a deep, glossy wine with striking aromas of blackcurrant and plum supported by chocolate and oak nuances. The full-bodied palate is filled with warm, ripe fruit, coffee and cinnamon flavours complemented by a firm tannin structure. plump and nicely rounded with a long, flavoursome finish.

Wyndham Estate

GEORGE WYNDHAM

FOUNDERS RESERVE Shiraz Tempranillo 2007

was $26.00 now $20.90 29116

CASE OF 6 ONLY $20.40 A BOTTLE

From a range named in honour of George Wyndham, pioneer of commercial Shiraz plantings in Australia. Components were separately fermented, with parcels aged in French oak prior to the final blending. It has a vibrant, aromatic bouquet of cassis, blackberry, and spice. The medium-bodied, persistent palate displays generous plum and currant flavours and hints of spice, complemented by subtle oak and fine tannins.

Annie's Lane

CLARE VALLEY Shiraz 2008

was $24.90 now $18.90 29030

CASE OF 6 ONLY $18.40 A BOTTLE

A Clare Valley institution

Annie's Lane is named after Annie Wayman, who in the early days of McLaren Vale winemaking got stuck in a muddy lane while delivering lunch to vineyard workers. Since then the track has been affectionately known as Annie's Lane. This is a youthful wine with a forward fruit bouquet of spiced plum enlivened with hints of eucalyptus and vanillin oak. It's beautifully balanced, the rich, spicy berry and plum flavours and hints of mocha complemented by subtle use of oak.

Wolf Blass GREY LABEL

McLAREN VALE Shiraz 2008

was $50.00 now $34.90 28815

CASE OF 6 ONLY $34.40 A BOTTLE

Iconic Australian producer

Grey Label Shiraz used to be a multi-regional blend, but since 2002 it has been produced exclusively from McLaren Vale fruit. Fermentation was conducted in new and seasoned French and American oak followed by eighteen months of barrel maturation. A beautifully crafted Shiraz boasting a nose packed with ripe berry, plum, pepper, cinnamon, mocha and integrated spicy oak. On the palate the wine reveals layers of ripe fruit mingling with chocolate nuances. Superb.

SUPPLE AND APPROACHABLE, THESE SPANISH REDS ARE PERFECT FOR THE SUMMER BARBEQUE SEASON

Solar Viejo
Cosecha 2008

was $20.00 now $16.90 88012

CASE OF 6 ONLY $16.40 A BOTTLE

Rioja magic

Bodegas Solar Viejo are sited in Rioja Alavesa, which is generally considered, if you can get Spanish wine drinkers to agree on anything, mind, to be the best part of the Rioja appellation. Lots of little growers – in acreage, rather than stature – till and toil so you tend to get individualistic expressions of Tempranillo such as this: non-homogenous, characterful, lively and interesting. It's about the fruit, stupid, loads of lush berries dipped in spice and tarred with touches of tea. Deep, warm and endless, like King Albert's pockets.

Luzon
Jumilla 2007

was $22.00 now $18.90 86957

CASE OF 12 ONLY $18.40 A BOTTLE

Modern, groundbreaking winery

Wine Enthusiast, which is not a weird guy with an anorak and a grubby laptop, but a much respected industry organ, named this their Wine of the Year a coupla years back. Of all the wines they could have chosen, think about it. What a coup! What a low-key press agent Luzon must have. They'd say the wine speaks for itself, and so it speaks Cherry-ish and Plum-lingo, volubly and with great richness and a slightly spiced accent, especially on the vowels.

Palacios Remondo
LA VENDIMIA Rioja 2008

was $24.90 now $19.90 88060

CASE OF 12 ONLY $19.40 A BOTTLE

While La Vendimia simply means harvest, it is also a reflection of the youth and vigour of a wine whose correct application is to be drunk young. From the family vineyard that the maverick Alvaro Palacios rejuvenated, revitalised and reignited in a kind of Winery Makeover Reality Show, the wine itself is a 50/50 blend of Tempranillo and Grenache. Thus? Thus much bright ripe fruit twinned with plenty of substance. Oozing blackberry jam and smears of plum juice thickly coat the palate while wild herbs add a high note to its natural harmonious tones.

Protos ROBLE
Ribera del Duero 2008

was $24.90 now $19.90 88069

CASE OF 6 ONLY $19.40 A BOTTLE

If you think the Bilbao Guggenheim is an impressive and outlandish piece of architecture, as Messrs Bachmann, Turner and Overdrive once stuttered, You Ain't Seen Nothin' Yet. You should see the winery that the Protos collective have built at Valladolid, in Castille. The Spanish Agriculture Minister was present for the laying of the foundation stone, which already suggests 'National Treasure.' This youthful, blueberry-shortcake-with-vanilla-cream red is a treasure itself: softly spiced and gently framed, the lush rivers of fruit go straight to your heart. Throb.

Cepa 21 HITO
Ribera del Duero 2008

was $34.90 now $24.90 87761

CASE OF 6 ONLY $24.40 A BOTTLE

Made by Emilio Moro

Bryan Ferry and his brother Cook Strait were seen knocking a couple of these over in Covent Garden recently, so it's got to be so hip it hurts. As the pensioner crooner is still the benchmark for good taste in many circles, it's no surprise to find this is a thoroughly modern, fruit-driven style that exudes more class than is decent, and dispenses its myriad gifts with liberal charm and panache. Racy, rich yet rather refined.

Palacios Remondo
LA MONTESA Rioja 2007

was $36.90 now $25.90 88061

CASE OF 12 ONLY $25.40 A BOTTLE

Made by Alvaro Palacios

Mainly Garnacha and Tempranillo, this has more than a hint of the hillsides from whence the fruit is plucked. There is an untameable rusticity here, with wild herbs, brambly berries and briar characters scratching their way into your psyche before fragrant flowers embrace you like a needy child. A good dash of spice opens up the possibilities further, while smoke (but no mirrors) keeps you guessing until the end. A great, mysterious wine from a masterful producer.

was $24.90 now $19.90 10549

CASE OF 12 $19.40 A BOTTLE

Classically styled Marlborough Sauvignon with an expressive bouquet of tropical fruit and herb. The palate is finely balanced, well weighted and finishes on a vibrantly fresh note.

2 Sacred Hill WINE THIEF
HAWKE'S BAY Chardonnay 2009

was $29.90 now $24.90 18490

CASE OF 6 $24.40 A BOTTLE

A barrel fermented Chardonnay dominated by citrus aromas and flavours, with nuances of mineral and oak in support. Elegant and food-friendly, with a persistent, flavoursome finish.

3 Saint Clair MARLBOROUGH Sauvignon Blanc 2010

was $22.90 now $18.90 18308

CASE OF 12 $18.40 A BOTTLE

The team at Saint Clair can justifiably be regarded as Sauvignon experts. This displays a great sense of place; fresh, refined, packed with ripe flavours enlivened by a dash of citrus.

4 The 3rd Man
WAIPARA Riesling 2009

was $24.90 now $19.90 15730

CASE OF 12 $19.40 A BOTTLE

Made in the Germanic off-dry style, this has an excellent depth of stonefruit flavours countered by a squeeze of lime. Extremely food friendly, delightfully fresh and balanced.

5 Vidal RESERVE
HAWKE'S BAY Chardonnay 2009

was $33.00 now $25.90 19415

CASE OF 6 $25.40 A BOTTLE

This elegantly-styled Hawke's Bay Chardonnay combines ripe peach, lime and subtle oak on the nose. Well balanced and creamy in texture, it finishes on a long, flavour-filled note.

6 Burnt Spur MARTINBOROUGH
Pinot Noir 2008

was $43.90 now $36.90 18945

CASE OF 6 $36.40 A BOTTLE

A wonderfully seductive Pinot Noir with lovely cherry and spice notes supported by oak on the nose and palate. Well integrated and structured, with a lingering, flavoursome finish.

7 Cottier WAIRARAPA
Pinot Noir 2007

was $27.90 now $20.90 14252

CASE OF 12 $20.40 A BOTTLE

A generously flavoured Pinot Noir with upfront berry and cherry aromas supported by spicy oak nuances. A balanced and well integrated wine with a lengthy, savoury-infused finish.

8 Wynns COONAWARRA Cabernet Sauvignon 2006

was $44.00 now $23.90 29203

CASE OF 6 $23.40 A BOTTLE

A rich, complex red with plenty of blackberry and plum aromas and flavours complemented by integrated oak. The persistent flavours are woven around a core of fine-grained tannins.

9 Brookfields
HAWKE'S BAY Malbec 2009

was $25.00 now $19.90 19298

CASE OF 12 $19.40 A BOTTLE

The Malbec's fruit tannins and alcohol are big and mouthfilling. Arguably the best 'Amarone style' available in New Zealand, the power of this muscled wine is most impressive.

10 Yering Station
Shiraz Viognier 2007

was $36.90 now $29.90 25635

CASE OF 6 $29.40 A BOTTLE

A very approachable red with a perfumed nose of violet, berry and a dusting of ground pepper. The palate is dominated by ripe fruit flavours lifted by understated oak and mellow tannins.
