GLENGARRY GOES MOBILE

We have to confess to a not-so-secret love of technology; the feedback we get from a lot of you suggests a similar addiction. It seems natural that we help our web savvy customers interact with our offerings via their preferred mobile connection, and so we've worked hard to produce two new advances in how we communicate with you.

Firstly, we've just finished developing a mobile-optimised website (in-house, of which we're rather proud). It takes all the functionality of our website, puts it in a smartphone environment and delivers it to your iPhone, Blackberry or Android. The web experience has been optimised for viewing on a smartphone: nice big buttons for easy use and all the info you require in an easy-to-read fashion.

You can now enjoy using the Glengarry website for purchasing no matter where you are; yes, it's a fully functioning website right in your palm. If you're out and about and wondering what wine you'll need to go with the porcupine and dandelion pizza, hey Chianti! You can look up a product, price it, read the tasting note, see if it works as a food match and then have it delivered.

See what tastings and events we have on at the touch of a button; and if you find yourself somewhere in town and don't know which Glengarry is closest to you? Merely click on Stores and, using your mobile's GPS, we'll locate the closest shop to where you're standing (pretty handy for all you tourists in town). To get hooked up, go to www.glengarry.co.nz via your phone and we'll waltz you through it.

Our other new creation is our iPhone barcode-scanning app, with more product information than you can shake a swizzle stick at delivered in an easy-to-access, easy-to-read style, quick smart. Just go to the App Store, search LiquorScan and it'll appear - and it's free to download!

So if you have a bottle and want, for instance, to settle a dinner party argument, simply scan its barcode and the app will deliver you the answer (information on the winery, the winemaker, awards, food matching possibilities, heck there's even a Riesling Sweetness Indicator! - all of it available and at your fingertips), allowing you to utter 'told you so' with as much relish as is being served with the venison steaks.

With thousands of products in our database, and more being added all the time, this app has snap and, along with our mobile site, makes us feel at least somewhat on the leading edge of the race to out-techno everyone, in a way we figure enhances our interaction with you, and yours with the wines you love. And that has to be a smart thing, indeed.

A MONTHLY SELECTION OF DELICIOUS, DEPENDABLE REDS AND WHITES WHERE THE PALATE, NOT THE PRICE TAG, PACKS A PUNCH

Brookfields BURNFOOT HAWKES BAY Merlot 2010

was $19.90 now $14.90 11349

CASE OF 12 ONLY $14.40 A BOTTLE

Made by the Bay's Peter Robertson

Beautiful bright colour, deep but glowing, positively abloom with promise. Very French, smells of boardrooms; you know, oak tables, tobacco, ashtrays and serious matters. The pink blinds of the Financial Times snap shut and someone questions your validity. No fraud here, Maude, just honest, authentic meaty, darkly-berried Merlot magic. The perfectly balanced tannic presence is slightly grainy, like the reception on the Phillips K9 you resurrected to watch the Rugby World Cup and which still sits in a corner of the lounge, fondly.

Montes CLASSIC SERIES CHILEAN Cabernet Sauvignon 2010

was $18.90 now $16.90 90512

CASE OF 12 ONLY $16.40 A BOTTLE

Top Chilean producer

Angels abound, this one offering the goblet but, sensibly, keeping the bunch of grapes for itself, a hot angel-date clearly pending. A gentle but soundly-structured offering, richly textured and flavoured, with oodles of oozing berries slinking inside the support network of oak and finely-judged tannin. It's all so moving and beautiful that you can just feel a group hug building...

Esk Valley HAWKES BAY Pinot Gris 2010

Boutique winery with a big history

Golly thy golden chariot has arrived, Icarus. Oh no, that was waxwings, wasn't it? Hard to keep up with the Golden Age of... cherubs, which brings me neatly to this: all the qualities of an angel: purity with substance, delicacy with chubbiness, a bit of glamour and more than a little mystery. The Golden Apple emerges knowingly, a stunning pear in front of a shimmering, honey-hazed horizon. Great presence, loads of style and a cheeky, knowing grin. Starlet.

CASE OF 12 ONLY $10.40 A BOTTLE

Denis Gunn is one of those quiet achievers, his fire-arm-mimicking moniker perhaps the most explosive thing about him. A deeply experienced viticulturist and academically-drenched winemaker with more than a few vintages under his bandolier, he has constructed a wine that neatly reflects his simple, direct approach. Ripe, supple, berry-fruit-laden, full of flavour and overflowing with charm.

Saint Clair MARLBOROUGH Chardonnay 2010

was $21.90 now $14.90 18299

CASE OF 12 ONLY $14.40 A BOTTLE

This delicious offering embodies a quintessential truth: to stay balanced, one must keep moving. And so while there is expert point and counterpoint between acid and fruit, creamy malo characters and slightly tart grapefruit-ian proclivities, the whole thing has a pulse and an energy that pulls you along at a good pace. Tastes great, and is fab value, too. x

Lake Chalice MARLBOROUGH Pinot Noir 2010

was $19.90 now $15.90 13534

CASE OF 12 ONLY $15.40 A BOTTLE

Bright and smiling nose, cherries and dewdrops of floral miasma and some non-humdrum plums all delivered in truly fragrant, charming fashion. Seductive, attractive, risqué even (is the whole thing silk, Genevieve, really?), and there's plenty of flavour, cheery acid, some complex earthiness, grainy tannins, and a finish that belies the narrow pricing structure. Quite French, fully confident but not brash.

Laroche DE LA CHEVALIÈRE SOUTH OF FRANCE Chardonnay 2009

was $21.90 now $16.90 48591

CASE OF 6 ONLY $16.40 A BOTTLE

The yeast used in this fermentation is a Champagne strain, a perfect irrelevancy, perhaps, but it shows that the fingers of Monsieur Michel Many Pies reach far and deep. Bursting with grapefruit and pineapple, with some taut acid hemming in its broad brilliance, it's a kick back and live it up kinda wine. Perfect for summer sur le bateau.

ROGER PARKINSON, NGA WAKA

The Parkinson family's passion for wine developed during Gordon Parkinson's diplomatic posting to France in the 1970s, at around the same time that New Zealand was establishing its Sauvignon Blanc credentials. A teenager at the time, Gordon's son Roger also became fascinated with wine; it has fashioned the course that his life has taken since that French experience, and it was the impetus for the establishment of Nga Waka.

In 1986 the Parkinson family purchased a bare block of land in Martinborough, and by 1988 had established Nga Waka's Home Vineyard. That same year Roger graduated from Roseworthy College and went on to work vintages and gain experience in Australia, Bordeaux and Alsace. Roger returned to New Zealand in 1992 to produce Nga Waka's first vintage.

The Parkinsons named the winery after the three hills, Nga Waka a Kupe, that lie like upturned canoes as the backdrop to Martinborough. Today the company owns and manages five vineyard sites there; the original Home Block where the winery is located, along with the Teagle, Parkinson, Old Cemetery and Top Blocks.

Nga Waka is an accredited member of Sustainable Wine Growing New Zealand and the company produces two wine tiers, both made exclusively from Martinborough grapes. The Three Paddles wines are produced from younger vines, are approachable earlier and offer exceptional value, while the Nga Waka range is made up of super premium, handmade wines that have been matured longer in barrel and bottle and are intended to cellar exceptionally well.

MARTINBOROUGH Pinot Noir 2010

was $34.90 now $29.90 15855

CASE OF 12 ONLY $29.40 A BOTTLE

Roger Parkinson produces a Pinot Noir that is both rich and elegant, displaying the unique characteristics of its Martinborough terroir. Following the primary and malolactic fermentations the wine was matured for eleven months in French barriques and bottled unfiltered and unfiltered. The nose exhibits cherry, spice and understated oak, the generously flavoured palate an excellent depth of fruit, a touch of earthiness and a fine tannin structure. Lovely drinking.

Three Paddles

MARTINBOROUGH Pinot Noir 2010

was $25.90 now $19.90 15854

CASE OF 12 ONLY $19.40 A BOTTLE

Nga Waka's second-tier Pinot is an immediately approachable wine. Like its big brother, it displays vibrant varietal characters and a great sense of place. The wine was aged for nine months in French oak and bottled unfiltered and unfiltered. It is a ruby coloured wine with youthful purple highlights, and the bouquet of spicy berry aromas is embellished by subtle oak nuances. The palate has well defined fruit that is nicely integrated with spicy oak and complemented by pliant tannins.

MARTINBOROUGH Sauvignon Blanc 2010

was $25.90 now $18.90 15853

CASE OF 12 ONLY $18.40 A BOTTLE

Martinborough is the North Island's most southerly wine region, enjoying warm daytime temperatures and cool nights perfectly suited to Sauvignon Blanc. The fruit for this was harvested in prime condition and then cool fermented in stainless steel tanks. The nose has distinctive passionfruit, capsicum and celery-like aromas supported by herb and mineral notes, while the well weighted palate has intense flavours of lime-accented tropical fruit, enlivened by minerality and finishing on a crisp, zingy note.

Three Paddles

MARTINBOROUGH Sauvignon Blanc 2011

was $19.90 now $14.90 15856

CASE OF 12 ONLY $14.40 A BOTTLE

A smart, well-priced wine made with consummate skill. Cool fermented in stainless steel tanks to retain the vibrant fruit character that is the hallmark of Martinborough Sauvignon Blanc, it exhibits ripe melon and tropical fruit aromas underscored by herbal mineral notes. Stylish and nicely weighted, with well-defined fruit and a racy, persistent finish.

Alluringly gold in the glass, the fine little Michael Bublés chase each other up your flute (!), frolicking with gay abandon. An exquisite fragrance of white flowers besets you, a hazy hyacinth character that lemon sharpness draws gently into focus like a twitch upon the thread. Supremely sure of itself, it spreads gorgeously across the palate yet steers very clear and precise lines toward its unimpeachably finessed finish. Disarmingly elegant with a taut tension, and beautiful poise and balance.

A company steeped in history as deep as the limestone galleries in which this little beauty spends eighteen cool months of its life. They have ten acres of cellars some 50 metres beneath the stony soils, and it is here that the Burgundian varieties are transformed and transmute their charm as acacia, vanilla, citrus, almonds, apple and yeasty toastiness. MARLBOROUGH SAUVIGNON BLANC 2011
WAS $25.90 NOW $19.90 CASE OF 12 $19.40 A BOTTLE

The authentic limey-tinged herbaceousness is exalted with a pleasing pell-mell of red apples while the grassiness is a broad and even croquet lawn of possibilities. Lively, fresh and zingy, nudgingly acidic without being teeth-baringly bracing. Good weight, very attractive. Got a mallet?

12519 INVIVO

MARLBOROUGH SAUVIGNON BLANC 2011
WAS $22.90 NOW $16.90 CASE OF 12 $16.40 A BOTTLE

Winestate's Winery of the Year last year, an impressive gong indeed. Blackcurrants bob up again, while P-fruit and Gooseberry go round the mulberry bush at great pace. Herbaceous, true to form, tangy, acidic with a good wash of flavours.

13533 LAKE CHALICE
MARLBOROUGH SAUVIGNON BLANC 2011
WAS $19.90 NOW $15.90 CASE OF 12 $15.40 A BOTTLE

Fresh and vibrant, with a good firm hand of acid on the tiller steering her to a long, flavoursome, citrus-meets-mineral finish. Distinctly Marlborough, a stylish and exuberant expression.

10616 BABICH
MARLBOROUGH SAUVIGNON BLANC 2011
WAS $19.90 NOW $15.90 CASE OF 12 $15.40 A BOTTLE

Multi-layered aromatics with herbaceousness ripping off the top and richer, warmer stonefruit characters peeking out from underneath. Slight earth-meets-mineral character adds a bit of complexity. Lovingly fresh, with good palate flow and an equitable and even distribution of its assets.

18313 SPY VALLEY
MARLBOROUGH SAUVIGNON BLANC 2011
WAS $21.90 NOW $14.90 CASE OF 12 $14.40 A BOTTLE

One could argue that the narrow band of options Sauvignon offers stifles the winemaker. One could also argue that it doesn't stifle enough of them! This one's a keeper, though, all flinty-eyed intensity and bursting Bolshie swagger. Classic.

19237 TRINITY HILL
HAWKES BAY SAUVIGNON BLANC 2011
WAS $18.90 NOW $14.90 CASE OF 12 $14.40 A BOTTLE

Clearly Hawkes Bay with its non-aggressive stance towards all things aromatic. The attractive, slightly lower alcohol makes it less about heat and more about something else. Grassy, long finish, sending one's meanderings into the pastoral.

11391 WILD SOUTH
MARLBOROUGH SAUVIGNON BLANC 2011
WAS $19.90 NOW $13.90 CASE OF 12 $13.40 A BOTTLE

Best Marlborough white wine vintage since 2007 say the slinky southerners. Proof is in the glass; an intensely flavoured, deftly delivered delight, brimming with the fruity passion of passionfruit, classic canned peas and a flourish of florals.

Saignée (pronounced saan yay) means 'to bleed' in French, hence one can feel sanguine that no one suffered when a portion of fine Pinot juice was bled out from the tanks a mere working day post-picking. So fresh it's still flapping, it's a creamy ride of summer fruits blessed with vibrant acid.

12458 JULES TAYLOR
GISBORNE ROSÉ 2011
WAS $25.90 NOW $19.90 CASE OF 12 $19.40 A BOTTLE

Fiercely Marlborough-parochial Jules gets out of town to Surf City for a little Merlot to prime her pumps, and what a wise geographical decision it proves to be. Deliriously delicious, a drowsy drop-bomb of Tropicana-infused mania, tart raspberries rasping in unison with singing straws in a dreamy chorus.

12462 ROCKBURN STOLEN KISS
CENTRAL OTAGO ROSÉ 2011
WAS $23.90 NOW $19.90 CASE OF 12 $19.40 A BOTTLE

Remember Tim Finn intoning that 'nobody ever takes me seriously anyway'? Clue: Don't! The kiss has been stolen, the scene has been set, I mean even the winery tasting note mentions cherry lip gloss, flirtatious toffee apple and the word 'smeared' in no particular order. Prudes, begone.

16022 WILD EARTH
CENTRAL OTAGO PINOT NOIR ROSÉ 2011
WAS $24.90 NOW $18.90 CASE OF 12 $18.40 A BOTTLE

Gosh, this is forward. Will you stay tonight? Well, I never. You might, though; this is the sort of legal mood-changer and emollient that reminds you why rosé is an overlooked, misconstrued stunner of a style. The brimming basket of fresh summer fruits elevated by fruit acid will drive you into a dizzying ecstasy.

10219 AKARUA
CENTRAL OTAGO PINOT ROSÉ 2011
WAS $22.90 NOW $18.90 CASE OF 12 $18.40 A BOTTLE

There's a guilty pleasure about this opulent Otago offering. Maybe it's the slight sigh of sweetness to the fruited frivolities, or the unending creaminess of the palate, a silken drop sheet of shimmering delight that makes the fruit all a-quiver and you, well, you're gasping now, aren't you?

18332 SPY VALLEY
MARLBOROUGH ROSÉ 2011

HAWKES BAY MERLOT-MALBEC ROSÉ 2011
WAS $25.90 NOW $16.90 CASE OF 12 $16.40 A BOTTLE

Very flavoursome, almost meaty, maybe, with a kaleidoscope of berries from the red to the black, and a tangy-edged sweetness that sings of summer and sighs for a soft blanket. Selecting enhancing cuisine, something with a bit of acid edge would be just the ticket; a citric light-style summer risotto, perhaps.

18993 TI POINT TESS
MATAKANA WHITE MERLOT 2011

Ginger pears, I absolutely swear. Aromatically and palate-ly. Softer, plumper than most, it's generous and opulent, showing some healthy girth restrained by tight reins of acid. 12242 THE NED
MARLBOROUGH PINOT GRIS 2011

Quite peachy and warming, a veritable autumnal park. WAS $19.90 NOW $14.90 CASE OF 12 $14.40 A BOTTLE

Peter Robertson made his first Pinot Gris back in the early 1980s, pioneer as he is, and he returns to it, always a fan of aromatics and with many trips to Alsace under his hand-tooled belt. Pears, spice and florals top a thick, rich, honey-tipped palate in a refined, divine style.

11392 WILD SOUTH
MARLBOROUGH PINOT GRIS 2011
WAS $19.90 NOW $13.90 CASE OF 12 $13.40 A BOTTLE

Aromatically, the Wild South Pinot Gris is very tropical, all bananas, peaches and apricots, with a core of distinctive red apples in there too. The palate bursts with flavour, lively and vibrant, even and flowing as a river of dreams, Mr Joel. Banging buying.

INGREDIENTS

- 1 HEAD OF WITLOF
- 2 THIN SLICES OF SERRANO HAM

OLIVE OIL DRESSING

- 3 TABLESPOONS OF SIMUNOVICH LEMON INFUSED OLIVE OIL
- 1 TEASPOON OF CHOPPED FENNEL
- 1/2 TEASPOON OF SEA SALT

METHOD

BLEND THE INGREDIENTS FOR THE OLIVE OIL DRESSING

HALVE THE WITLOF LENGTHWAYS AND LIGHTLY CHARGRILL IT

WRAP THE CHARGRILLED WITLOF IN THE THIN SLICES OF SERRANO AND DRIZZLE WITH THE OLIVE OIL DRESSING

TASTY TIP

FOOD TIPS FROM DIDA'S GM, LIZ WHEADON

Matching cheese and wine is a whole heap of fun; there are some combinations you wouldn't think could work until you try them. Here are a couple of my favourites: try serving chunks of Reggiano (Parmesan) with Pol Roger champagne; it's a quick canapé and a great start to the evening. The Loire Valley produces some of the best goats cheeses. Also home to Sauvignon Blanc, the two are a match made in heaven; try the Jules Taylor 2011 Sauvignon Blanc with Crescent Dairy Goats' Farmhouse Sting.

SIMUNOVICH OLIVE OILS

New Zealand olive oil has risen to great heights, and one of the producers leading the charge is the Simunovich Olive Estate. Based in the Bombay hills and with over 40,000 trees, Simunovich is the largest privately-owned grove in the country, producing more than 150,000 bottles of extra virgin olive oil a year. Their natural oil is light in colour, has a delightfully fresh flavour and works equally well in dressings or for cooking. The lemon infused is made by adding pure, extracted lemon oils to the cold pressing, the method of infusion providing greater delicacy. Both the lemon and the garlic infused oils are a great accompaniment to salad and work well in marinades.

CRESCENT DAIRY GOATS CHEESES

Crescent Dairy Goats started making cheese in 2000 on a mere 7 acres in Albany. We've been a fan for some time, but with such a small site the production was limited and we could only stock these award-winning cheeses occasionally. In 2009 Crescent moved to their current site in Kumeu, a larger property that allows them to make enough cheese for us to stock all year round.

A MONTHLY SELECTION OF AFFORDABLE FRENCH WINE FROM OUR EXTENSIVE RANGE

Laroche DE LA CHEVALIÈRE
SOUTH OF FRANCE Merlot 2010

was $21.90 now $16.90 48567

CASE OF 6 ONLY $16.40 A BOTTLE

Rich, plump and round

An exceptionally well priced, fruit-driven Merlot from the South of France, alive with varietal flavours that course right through to the finish. The bouquet shows mulberry, plum, cherry and subtle spicy oak nuances. The palate is lively and juicy, with ripe berry and plum flavours combining with understated oak, enhanced by a silky texture and sweet, ripe tannins at the finish. Very approachable now, but will continue to develop.

DOMAINE Séguinet-Bordet
Petit Chablis 2009

was $32.00 now $21.90 40466

CASE OF 12 ONLY $21.40 A BOTTLE

13th generation producer!

This domaine has been a family business since 1590 and is now managed by Jean-François Bordet, who has introduced modern winemaking practises while maintaining some of the more traditional methods. To add greater dimension, complexity and texture, J-F matures the wines on lees for three to five months. This classically styled Chablis displays apple, pear and citrus aromas underscored by a hint of mineral. The richly flavoured and elegant palate finishes on a vibrantly crisp note.

Paul Jaboulet PARALLÈLE 45
Côtes du Rhône 2009

was $23.90 now $17.90 45418

CASE OF 12 ONLY $17.40 A BOTTLE

Just arrived, the stunning 2009

Parallèle 45 has earned accolades all over the world for its consistency and value. Just arrived, from the excellent 2009 vintage, this is Grenache-dominated and carefully matured before being released. The relatively complex bouquet exhibits ripe berry and plum aromas supported by spicy notes, while the palate is structured around a core of supple tannins that complement the spicy fruit flavours. Great value.

DOMAINE Nicolas Boiron
Côtes du Rhône 2009

was $29.90 now $24.90 41344

CASE OF 12 ONLY $24.40 A BOTTLE

From the excellent 2009 vintage

Not a large producer, but its wines are crafted with real passion by Nicolas Boiron. This is a traditional blend dominated by Grenache and complemented by some Syrah and a small portion of Mourvèdre. It is a dark, glossy garnet-coloured wine with a bouquet of black cherry, and white pepper notes from the Syrah. The medium-weighted, well balanced palate has an appealing fresh, fruity character complemented by a smooth mouthfeel.

CHÂTEAU Lamothe-Vincent
BORDEAUX Merlot 2010

was $24.90 now $18.90 41183

CASE OF 12 ONLY $18.40 A BOTTLE

Gold medal, great value Bordeaux

Château Lamothe-Vincent is owned and operated by the fourth generation of the Vincent Family. In 2000 the family built a new state-of-the art winery which has seriously paid off in gold medal wines. This deep garnet blend of 75% Merlot and 25% Cabernet Franc exudes aromas of cassis and black cherry supported by toasty oak. Full bodied and mouthfilling, it has a supple tannin structure and a fine, lengthy finish.

CHÂTEAU d'Agassac
Haut-Médoc 2008

was $49.90 now $39.90 41800

CASE OF 12 ONLY $39.40 A BOTTLE

New to NZ & exclusive to Glengarry

One of the oldest Médoc estates, dating back to the 11th century, its wines crafted to reflect the traditions of this illustrious region. A Cabernet-dominated blend showing distinctive ripe blackcurrant and plum aromas supported by hints of tobacco and spice. The palate has concentrated berryfruit flavours that are enhanced by cinnamon nuances and complemented by a svelte texture. Superb food wine, particularly well priced and from an excellent vintage. Grab some while you can.

Santa Margherita Prosecco DOC NV

was $23.90 now $19.90 62534

CASE OF 6 ONLY $19.40 A BOTTLE

This makes a great aperitif

Unlike the famous spumante that comes out of Asti, this elegant expression derived from the Valdobbiadene region is produced entirely from the ancient Prosecco variety. It has a persistent flow of pale golden bubbles and an attractive bouquet of floral, peach and subtle green apple aromas. The off-dry palate boasts an appealing liveliness and a nicely rounded mouthfeel.

Pasqua

Pinot Grigio/Garganega 2010

rrp $18.90 now $13.90 60511

CASE OF 6 ONLY $13.40 A BOTTLE

Light, fruity, perfect Spring drinking

An interesting blend of 60% Pinot Grigio and 40% Garganega, an Italian white variety widely grown in the Veneto region and one of the primary grapes used for Soave. The two varieties were separately cool fermented, blended and tank-aged. It displays a fragrant bouquet expressing pear and citrus, the palate delicately poised and showing fresh, lively fruit flavours complemented by a clean, crisp finish. Excellent as an aperitif or matched with seafood.

was $36.90 now $24.90 88061

CASE OF 12 ONLY $24.40 A BOTTLE

No.1 wine in Cuisine Magazine's inaugural Spanish Tasting

La Montesa is a classic blend of Garnacha, Tempranillo and Mazuelo. Matured for twelve months in French and American oak, the wine was bottled unfiltered and unfinned to preserve the character of its terroir. An elegant bouquet displays profound aromas of raspberry, blackberry, spice and pepper. It is an exceptionally well priced and serious wine, with layers of berryfruit, nutmeg, plum and coffee enhanced by a robust structure.

Alvaro Palacios

Camins del Priorat DOC 2008

was $39.90 now $29.90 88048

CASE OF 12 ONLY $29.40 A BOTTLE

Just landed, wonderful value

From the remote and rugged hillside vineyards of Priorat Alvaro Palacios has forged an impressive, distinctive red wine, a blend of Carignan and Garnacha complemented by portions of Cabernet Sauvignon and Syrah and aged in French barriques for eight months. Complex, silky-smooth, with aromas of raspberry, blueberry, spice and oak, the palate offers flavours of cherry and plum spiked with peppery spice. Beautifully made.
