Give, give, give, that's all you'll know this month, you altruists, although here's hoping that the word 'receipt' doesn't just apply to the store ones you're worried about clocking up for your friends, fiends and family. And golly it can be hellish, with a list of 'to buys' longer than your own wish list (Ferrari has three r's, Huey), but help for that hell is at hand: Glengarry is your Escape Claus(e).

Shake free from the clutches of gift-giving anxiety and come talk to us/email us/visit the website; we turn your frustrated pleas into a 'yes please' and 'thank you' quicker than you can say, 'I can get everyone on my list gifts from Glengarry, and those guys can wrap, pack and have 'em charged and ready all in plenty of time and looking beautiful and, my, look at the range.'

We sure can take the swerve out of the Christmas road and put you on the straight and narrow, sorting all your gift needs – clients, colleagues, comrades, colourful relatives – whether you need individual tailoring, or beautiful premium pre-packaged glittering bottles and prizes of all shapes and sizes. Yes we can.

'Build it and they will come,' someone once said. We have, so why don't you? Give us a shout! Merry Christmas!

Fearless Buys

A MONTHLY SELECTION OF DELICIOUS, DEPENDABLE REDS AND WHITES WHERE THE PALATE, NOT THE PRICE TAG, PACKS A PUNCH

Babich GIMBLETT GRAVELS HAWKES BAY Merlot Cabernet 2009

was $22.00 now $15.90 10665

CASE OF 12 ONLY $15.40 A BOTTLE

A Kiwi original

The Gravels' rep for concentrated and flavoursome red fruit delivers superbly for this near centurion winemaking family. A brightly coloured wine showing good depth and appealing crimsonality, it smells of dark chocolate-dipped black fruits. Beautifully even palate, seamless, flowing and integrated, the Merlot dominates with its silkiness and chocolatey richness, but the Cabernet is clear in its tannic contribution and that slight leather/tobacco thing beloved of Cab fans. And Harley Davidson riders.

Brightwater

NELSON Sauvignon Blanc 2011

was $24.00 now $17.90 10940

CASE OF 12 ONLY $17.40 A BOTTLE

Gold medal Nelson wine

Early Nelsonian adopters be the bright waterers, Gary and Valley Neale setting up in 1993. Bold, penetrating aromas of freshly squeezed lemons mix it up with a tidal surge of passionfruit, a little smoky minerality adding an intriguing touch. Full in the mouth, a tender tendril of banana/tropicality reaches out to finger your grubby collar; it calls for food, food responds, natch, and it all goes limey and smoky on its impressive final journey.

Pierre Brecht

ALSACE Pinot Gris 2010

was $27.00 now $19.90 42399

CASE OF 12 ONLY $19.40 A BOTTLE

Alsatian magic

The apricot and peach nose, with its hint of candle-wax, has an intensity and aromatic concentration that many local producers would give the rear axle of their Kubota for. Hints of honey and daubs of minerality come through on the lush palate. Even, flowing and richly textured, there's a touch of delicious, seductive sweetness before the full palate power is unleashed, while acid fruit tempers the tail's fat tendencies.

Montes CLASSIC SERIES

CHILEAN Malbec 2010

was $18.90 now $14.90 90527

CASE OF 12 ONLY $14.40 A BOTTLE

Brooding purple goes to black in an almost impenetrable centre; you could gaze into its depths for days. But we're here to drink wine. A meaty, savoury nose with almost roasted fruits, like a Cornas, with an earthy depth to them that never dominates. A palate of soft, ripe, full-on fruit with chocolatey richness and spice coming in for the kill. Gently, though... killed with kindness, perhaps.

Farmers Market

GISBORNE Chardonnay 2009

was $19.90 now $14.90 11551

CASE OF 12 ONLY $14.40 A BOTTLE

Peter Briant, whose Chardonnay vineyards are rightfully renowned, also has five Superboat Jetboat titles to his name. Start your engines, then: slightly buttery, warm and inviting tropical aromas in a very clean aromatic expression lead to a palate that's rich, ripe and full. Great mouthfeel, wondrous texture, the good fruit acid balances the lush fruit weight. Go on, race ya... to a tightly-controlled but flavoursome finish. Smokin'.

Lake Chalice

MARLBOROUGH Pinot Noir 2010

was $19.90 now $15.90 13534

CASE OF 12 ONLY $15.40 A BOTTLE

Oh, you fruity little fellow! Abundant cherries and plums sally forth and fill your senses in a clearly-defined and delightful aromatic trip. Ripe, tasty fruit with frankness but much breadth too; firm tannins can't trammel the fact that there's a real creaminess to the palate, something you'd normally say about whites but, hey, with Gambo and Co it's always an upside down, all-shook-up kinda world. Deftly executed, greatly drinkable, dumb and dumber pricing.

Devil's Staircase

CENTRAL OTAGO Pinot Noir 2010

was $24.90 now $18.90 12386

CASE OF 12 ONLY $18.40 A BOTTLE

Frothing with eagerness, bursting with Something to Say, and it says it well. Nice touch of French barnyard puts a feline amongst the avian: you don't expect complexity and depth from a Central Pinot at under $20 but hey, since its inception this has always over-delivered. A little French pouf, much pure, deep fruit and a hazy wave of violet brushes the night sky as you sip and ponder. Fiendishly attractive.

DIDA'S

ZABAGLIONE LIGHT ITALIAN CUSTARD

RECIPE BY DIDA'S HEAD CHEF, VINCENT MARSHALL

INGREDIENTS

- 2 EGG YOLKS
- 1 TBLESP CASTOR SUGAR
- 1 TBLESP MARSALA, MADEIRA OR SHERRY

USING A METAL OR HEATPROOF BOWL THAT CAN BE SUSPENDED OVER A SAUCEPAN OF SIMMERING WATER, BEAT THE EGG YOLKS AND THE SUGAR UNTIL THICK AND FOAMY, THEN BEAT IN THE WINE.

PLACE THE BOWL OVER THE SIMMERING WATER, MAKING SURE THAT THE WATER DOESN'T TOUCH THE BASE OF THE BOWL, AND WHISK CONSTANTLY FOR ABOUT 4-5 MINUTES.

CONTINUE WHISKING THE MIXTURE UNTIL IT FORMS A THICK CREAMY FOAM THAT COATS THE BACK OF THE SPOON. THE EGG NEEDS TO BE COOKED GENTLY SO THE MIXTURE STAYS SMOOTH.

SERVE IMMEDIATELY - OR CHILLED - OVER PANETTONE AND FRESH FRUIT.

TASTY TIP

FOOD TIPS FROM DIDA'S GM, LIZ WHEADON

Here's how I glaze my ham each year. First, remove the skin from the ham, keeping the layer of fat underneath. Dry the ham. Mix together half a cup of brown sugar, three decent spoonfuls of marmalade and a third of a cup of good whisky. Score the ham in a cross pattern, stud the ham with cloves, paste the glaze over the ham and reserve the balance for basting. Cook the ham for about 30 minutes, basting as you go.

PANETTONE

Flamigni are one of Italy's top Panettone makers, and they are well worth the additional small investment. Panettone is a traditional cake that originates from Milan - it's actually more like a brioche bread than a cake - and is made for Christmas and New Year celebrations. Our stocks for this Christmas will arrive via air freight in early December, and you can be sure that it will not stay on the shelves for too long. Traditionally, Panettone is served with Italy's sparkling Moscato d'Asti, and in a burst of serendipitous good fortune, we have Fontanafredda's delightful Moscato also landing in early December. Isn't life grand?

ENGLISH STILTON

Stilton is the king of English cheese, a wonderfully strong blue cheese that is traditional fare at Christmas time. To be a true English Stilton, it must be made in certain areas in a particular way (much like champagne). Stilton is only Stilton if it comes from one of three English counties, is made in a cylindrical shape, is allowed to form its own crust... and the list goes on. A great Stilton can be served on its own or accompanied by a glass of sherry; it is also delightful with Riesling. True. For Christmas, all Dida's stores have some authentic English Stilton in stock.

Sacred Hill is one of New Zealand's leading wineries, with production exceeding 200,000 cases sold locally and throughout the world. Central to the company's steady rise and spectacular show results have been company founders, the Mason Family, and Chief Winemaker, Tony Bish.

Tony first became involved with the Masons in 1995 when he helped to produce and launch Sacred Hill's first wine. After a period working vintages in Martinborough, Central Otago, Canterbury and Victoria, he returned to Sacred Hill in 1994 to take up his current position. Since then, his influence on and contribution to Sacred Hill's fortunes has been incalculable, given his ability to produce premium quality wines right across Sacred Hill's diverse range.

'Our philosophy is to produce premium varietal wines from our own estate vineyards located in the country's leading viticultural regions of Hawke's Bay, Marlborough and Central Otago. Our wines are marketed under a number of brands. Each one is distinct from the others and aimed at specific sectors,' states Tony.

Featured here, Sacred Hill's Halo range is made using small fruit parcels from selected blocks within the company's estate. They are stylish, fresh, fruit-forward wines that reflect both the variety and place of origin.

The Special Selection wines are produced only in outstanding vintages from premier estate vineyards. These premium, hand-made flagship wines are among the best in the country and represent the pinnacle of Sacred Hill's winemaking craft.

Sacred Hill RIFLEMANS

HAWKES BAY Chardonnay 2010

was $69.90 now $64.90 18512

CASE OF 6 ONLY $64.40 A BOTTLE

Sacred Hill's flagship, award-winning Chardonnay is derived from the company's Rifleman's vineyard. The grapes were whole bunch pressed, fermented with indigenous yeasts and matured for twelve months in new and seasoned French oak barriques. Pristine, crystal clean, with a complex bouquet of peach and grapefruit backed by subtle vanillin and marzipan, the finely structured palate has tiers of stonefruit and citrus flavours seamlessly integrated around a creamy texture. Intensely elegant.

HAWKES BAY Chardonnay 2010

was $25.90 now $19.90 18577

CASE OF 12 ONLY $18.90 A BOTTLE

The Halo fruit was selected from designated vineyards then oak fermented and matured. It displays stonefruit and mealy/toasty characters on the nose, while the complex palate has layers of ripe peach, melon and grapefruit flavours coated by a slick, viscous texture. It finishes on a smartly crisp note. Enjoyable now, but the structure suggests it will continue to develop elegantly.

Sacred Hill HALO

HAWKES BAY Syrah 2010

was $25.90 now $19.90 18507

CASE OF 12 ONLY $18.90 A BOTTLE

Grown in Hawke's Bay's famous Gimblett Gravels, the hand harvested fruit was traditionally fermented and then matured for twelve months in French oak barriques. The outstanding aromatics display blackberry, plum and classic spicy/peppery nuances. The palate has an abundance of ripe, deep-seated, dark fruit flavours woven around a silky texture. Brilliant food wine.

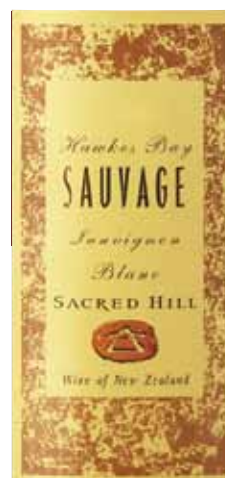

Sacred Hill SAUVAGE

HAWKES BAY Sauvignon Blanc 2008

was $41.90 now $32.90 18468

CASE OF 6 ONLY $32.40 A BOTTLE

Sauvage breaks the mould to deliver a unique experience. It was barrel fermented with indigenous (wild-sauvage) yeasts and matured in French oak for ten months. A pale straw wine with distinctive tropical fruit, citrus-accented aromas embellished by nutty nuances, it is rich, deep and beautifully structured. A revelation.

Gold medal wine, one of our top sellers

Keep a bottle of this chilled to serve to your guests when they arrive; it is the perfect aperitif and it will immediately put them at ease, but better have some finger foods at hand because it will stimulate their palates. Crisp and terrifically fresh, it's brimming with vibrant aromas and flavours of melon, gooseberry, and capsicum balanced by finely-judged citrus and mineral nuances. Lovely drinking, great price.

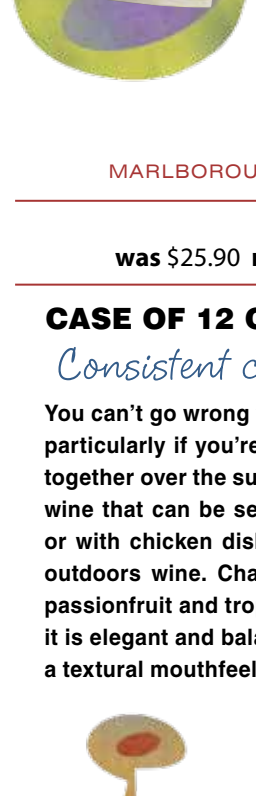

Brookfields BERGMAN

HAWKES BAY Chardonnay 2010

was $19.90 now $15.90 11361

CASE OF 12 ONLY $15.40 A BOTTLE
A Hawkes Bay classic

For sheer consistency and value, the Bergman Chardonnay is hard to beat. Brookfields owner and winemaker Peter Robertson barrel ferments the wine and puts it through partial malolactic fermentation to add weight and textural butterscotch nuances that complement the peach and melon aromas and flavours. Complex, harmonious, a lovely mouthfeel. Excellent food wine.

Consistent class, year after year

You can't go wrong with this Marlborough institution, particularly if you're planning a seafood-themed get-together over the summer. It is a particularly versatile wine that can be served as an aperitif, with seafood or with chicken dishes, and it's the ideal refreshing outdoors wine. Characterised by intense aromas of passionfruit and tropical fruit backed by citrus notes, it is elegant and balanced, with herbaceous nuances, a textural mouthfeel and a fine, persistent finish.

Craggy Range GIMBLETT GRAVELS

HAWKES BAY Chardonnay 2010

was $32.90 now $25.90 11359

CASE OF 12 ONLY $25.40 A BOTTLE
Top Chardonnay, top producer

A great dinner party Chardonnay, with the complexity and texture to match creamy poultry and seafood dishes. Barrel fermented and matured for ten months in French oak barriques, this pale green-gold wine exudes nectarine, lime and floral aromas backed by mineral nuances. Nicely weighted, with persistent fruit flavours, a silky mouthfeel and a fine, crisp aftertaste.

Te Mata ELSTON

HAWKES BAY Chardonnay 2010

was $39.90 now $26.90 19106

CASE OF 12 ONLY $26.40 A BOTTLE

One of NZ's most prestigious wines, the legendary Elston Chardonnay is an immediate choice when selecting wines for a celebratory occasion. Concentrated stonefruit and floral aromas are supported by spicy oak nuances, with the intense ripe fruit flavours complemented by mealy nuances, integrated oak and a crisp citrus aftertaste.

CASE OF 12 ONLY $24.40 A BOTTLE
A great alternative

If you are in a quandary as to which wine to offer your family and friends, try this delectable Riesling, a much underrated variety; it is a versatile food wine with a perfumed nose of tangelo and spice supported by hints of manuka honey. The off-dry, well balanced palate has appetising fruit flavours that develop through the middle and linger on at the finish.

Matawhero

GISBORNE Gewürztraminer 2011

was $25.90 now $18.90 10771

CASE OF 6 ONLY $18.40 A BOTTLE
Great matched with spicy foods

Gewürztraminer's unique characters set it apart from most white varieties, and it is a great match with fusion and Asian-inspired fare. This release from Matawhero (who put the variety on the map in New Zealand) offers exotic aromas of rose, lychee, cinnamon and mandarin. The heart of the palate is filled with generous spicy flavours that gain momentum right through to the finish.

Alsace finesse

Works a treat on its own, but is also a great match for the Christmas ham, cold cuts of poultry, roasts, Thai, Indian, even sweet and sour dishes. This versatility is one of the reasons why it's so widely listed in French restaurants. A lush, full bodied Pinot Gris – as only the Alsatians can do it – with blossom, honeycomb and spice aromas, and richly textured pear and stone-fruit flavours balanced by mineral notes.

Boasts very old winemaking roots

Mont-Redon has taken a different approach to that of Jaboulet; the blend in their Reserve consists of 70% Grenache, 20% Cinsault and 10% Syrah. The result is a medium to full-bodied wine displaying well-defined, spice-edged berryfruit aromas and an elegant, fruity palate. An excellent, food-friendly wine with wide appeal.

ARMAGNAC

Armagnac the region is in Gascony, south-west France, and like many things French and liquid, the production area, grapes and processes are defined by law. Grapes? Indeed, Armagnac the brandy is distilled from selected grapes that are cultivated down in these parts. First noted in 1411, production was officially controlled in 1909, and by 1936 the area had achieved AOC status.

In both refinement and price, Armagnac has all the cachet of the more famous Cognac, but where its older brother is dominated by Big Brother-esque brands, Armagnac production tends to be the domaine of small, often family producers who use column stills rather than the pot stills of Cognac.

Fine spirit it is, too, and as with Cognac, there are age-derived classifications that help with your selection: with 'three star' the spirit must have been in cask for three years, with VO, from five to ten years and for VSOP, up to 15 years. Hors d'Age means that the brandy is at least 25 years old. This comment from Larousse bears repeating:

'Armagnac is different from Cognac but – a common delusion – it is not weaker in any way, nor is it, quality for quality, any cheaper.'

PREMIUM GIN

Hendrick's is a 'curious yet marvellous infusion of cucumber and rose petal.' It's made in diminutive batches in copper pot and Carter head stills. This is worth mentioning because it indicates the lengths producers are going to, to create exciting and characterful gin that is seriously worth seeking out.

Part science, part art, these offerings express a crafted, artisan approach more akin to single malt production. It's all about tradition, and these gins are made according to unique recipes and processes and have individualistic flavour profiles, meaning (a) don't drown them in tonic and (b) best you buy them all and compare!

APERITIF

Aperitifs have made a startling comeback to the bars and homes of Europe; they represent the notion, going back centuries, that certain herbal concoctions can literally open the appetite, hence 'aperitif'.

Dubonnet is a French, sweet wine-based herbal aperitif that is traditionally mixed with lemonade. Aperol is the hottest thing in Europe right now, an Italian aperitif with an orange taste; drink it mixed with prosecco or soda, and always with a slice of orange.

The English Pimms uses gin, quinine and a secret mixture of herbs and botanicals; mix with lemonade, ginger ale, lemon, mint and a slice of cucumber. Campari is the most famous of the Italian aperitifs; with a herbal taste, it is traditionally consumed with soda. Lillet is a wine-based aperitif with citrus and quinine; at home in France it is drunk cold over ice with a slice of orange or lemon.

WAS $72.90 NOW $43.90 CASE OF 12 $39.90 A BOTTLE

With an annual production of around 10,000 cases, bulk producers the dapper Drappier chaps are not. An incessant evanescence of bubbles tingle your tongue while quince/citrus conserve fruit drops atop subtle brioche in a style that is finely wrought, precisely tuned yet overflowing with flavour and charm.

WAS $74.90 NOW $49.90 CASE OF 6 $49.40 A BOTTLE

They just keep ramping up the quality at Piper-Heidsieck without dialling down the exuberant charm one iota. It bursts with citrus/orange juiciness, surges forth on a wave of grilled toast and marzipan, then soars to an apogee of excitement and invigoration that is so intense you question its legality. Fierce fun.

46313 LANSON BLACK LABEL
BRUT NV

WAS $82.00 NOW $59.90 CASE OF 6 $59.40 A BOTTLE

'Sports baked apple, citrus and dough on a vivid framework,' said Wine Spectator. What's a vivid framework? Is that when Junior gets let loose with the markers after one too many fluffies? A coiled spring of neurotic intensity, it's anxiety with nuts... appley, slightly vanillin and completely captivating.

42845 DELAMOTTE
BRUT NV SAVE 40%

WAS $99.90 NOW $59.90 CASE OF 6 $59.40 A BOTTLE

Delamotte is often called Champagne's best kept secret, so sorry to out you and all, Del, but after 250 years, isn't it time? Brother of Salon, this is a powerful but non-aggressive style that works as an aperitif and as a post-prandial wind-downer. A remarkable wine of depth and complexity, serious, yet approachable.

47330 GOSSET EXCELLENCE
BRUT NV

WAS $89.90 NOW $64.90 CASE OF 6 $64.40 A BOTTLE

Established in 1584 but, to be fair, they didn't produce Champagne until the late 18th century. Clean and precise rather than overpowering, with marzipan, toasty notes and an appley freshness just like spring rain. Crisp, with a yeasty presence, a real citric tingle on the tongue and supportive biscuity weight. Elegant.

49511 TAITTINGER
BRUT RÉSERVE NV

WAS $106.00 NOW $67.90 CASE OF 6 $67.40 A BOTTLE

A high proportion of Chardonnay in the blend lends this a finesse and elegance that balances its understated power. Aromatically expressive, with white flowers, stonefruit and biscuity notes enticingly interwoven, the crisp palate cascades with richness, perfect poise and a hint of honey. A silver-tongued devil.

48210 POL ROGER
BRUT RÉSERVE NV

WAS $89.00 NOW $69.90 CASE OF 12 $69.40 A BOTTLE

One of the last family-run Grand Marques, Pol is distinctively styled, the rich white and gold fruit characters creamily dispersed upon a bed of yeasty, biscuity beauty. Possessing a wonderful balance, poise and finish, it is consistently one of Champagne's greatest NV wines. Gets a 'like' from Wills & Kate, too, evidently.

49810 VEUVE CLICQUOT
BRUT NV

WAS $99.90 NOW $69.90 CASE OF 6 $68.90 A BOTTLE

Highly Pinot-centric, ensuring that distinctive powerhouse structure year in, year out. The Chardonnay component provides the starbright aromatics, the overall impression one of being locked in a sumptuous patisserie and having to drink your way out. While holding a bunch of flowers. A true global phenomenon.

43570 DRAPPIER MILLÉSIME EXCEPTION
VINTAGE 2004

2004 delivered wines of unusually high quality; no surprise Drappier 'declared' it, then, bursting forth with a wine not often widely released. A mini-me version of Drappier's prestige cuvée, Grand Sendrée, it's a creamy, forward style with great depth and breadth, yet much finesse and elegance, all for a standard NV price.

The most exquisite, glinting, coppery colour. The Pinot-derived richness is clear even on the nose, with red fruits and spice decadently unveiled. It dances, fresh, lively yet layered and complex, the beautifully interwoven flavours expressed on a palate of sheer silk. Long, controlled delicious finish.

41522 CHARLES HEIDSIECK
BRUT RÉSERVE NV

WAS $89.90 NOW $74.90 CASE OF 6 $74.40 A BOTTLE

A plump wine, fleshy and opulent, its riches exhibited as warm rivers of stonefruit, caramel-dipped nuts and gently toasted brioche. Yum, is the oenological term. But its belt is tightened by an incisive mousse and well-judged acid, thus delivering the Holy Grail of champagne making, balance & harmony.

40820 BOLLINGER SPECIAL CUVÉE
BRUT NV

WAS $122.00 NOW $89.90 CASE OF 6 $89.40 A BOTTLE

Concentrated biscuit and apple characters are supported by firm oak. Coffee, caramel and honey augment the rich tides of fresh fruit, with the reserve wines ensuring an all-encompassing mouthful. The myriad, complex characters are carried by good acid and a robust frame to a phenomenal finish.

WAS $144.00 NOW $93.90 CASE OF 6 $93.40 A BOTTLE

Being established in 1729 makes Ruinart one of the first cabs off the champagne rank, a salient fact where history is so respected. 100% 1er Cru Chardonnay explains the subtle minerality that lines the rich coffers of lemony toast, almonds and suave honey succulence. Distinctively delicious, especially at the meal's end.

48239 POL ROGER BRUT ROSÉ VINTAGE 2002

WAS $130.00 NOW $99.00 CASE OF 12 $98.50 A BOTTLE

A superb wine from a great vintage, this model comes on with an intense nose of raspberries, strawberries, red fruits and general summertime playfulness before a hint of sweetness leads to the rush of divinely inspired decadence and indulgence. Exquisitely textured, with a finish of perfect proportion. Seamless.

49815 VEUVE CLICQUOT
VINTAGE 2004

Pinot-dominant, with fine bubbles, fragrant florals, fruit and a slight minerality sending the expectation meter into a quivering frenzy. The palate exhibits boldly, with almond-touched candied fruit across deeper notes of peat and earth. Precise, clear-cut, smooth, rich: a rare and exotic experience.

47234 DOM PÉRIGNON
VINTAGE 2002 SAVE 39%

WAS $326.00 NOW $199.90

Subtlety, elegance and refinement mark this wine as much as its great depth of barely-restrained forceful flavours. Almonds, acacia, hints of honey and warm toast are defined by citrus and mineral characters on a weighty, seamless and harmonious magic carpet of a palate.

48234 POL ROGER CUVÉE SIR WINSTON CHURCHILL
VINTAGE 1999

WAS $280.00 NOW $245.00

Disgorged on the 12th of January 2009 and drawn from vines that were fruiting in Sir Winston's time, this is a wine to lose yourself in. Like the man it is complex, mysterious and unique, yet also highly approachable, charming even, with citrus, mineral, spice and flowers all secured around an indomitable structure.

TRY THIS Quina Fina TONIC WATER

WITH HAYMAN'S LONDON DRY

Ex-Glengarry staffer Alex Gledhill's extraordinary, premium tonic water has the most fascinating back story. Seeing that premium gins were on the rise and not wanting to splash cheap mixer into them, he ended up in Peru sourcing 'quina fina' bark to make the quinine for this, his refreshingly bitter, slightly lemony, ultra-premium tonic water. Try it with Hayman's London Dry Gin and you'll see how Alex's objective to recapture the authentic, old-school, refreshing G & T has been exquisitely accomplished.

BARGAINS FROM BURGUNDY

Acclaimed Burgundian whizz Nicolas Potel set up Domaine de Bellene in 2005 after acquiring prime vineyard plots in Volnay, Nuits-Saint-Georges, Vosne Romanée and elsewhere and head-quartering himself in Beaune, the heart of the region. While his négociant wines are superb, this offering is breathtaking. And very rare: Glengarry is one of only ten customers worldwide that Nicolas supplies with this selection. NEW FROM CASTILLO

Perelada

The notion of this extraordinary cava was conceived when Dwight D visited España in 1959. Being the Prez they wanted to impress, and Castillo Perelada were asked to contribute a cava to the reception banquet. They chose a small volume Reserva to mark the occasion and it was such a supremely grand idea, Gran Claustro was born(e). Aged in Carmelite cellars where vino was first vinted 600 years ago, this is limited, outstanding and a little piece of history.

IPA 330ML BOTTLE $4.50

This fab new release from the micro-specialists at Riverhead is going off, kids. Steve tells us it's an IPA style, or 'APA - Aotearoa Pale Ale.' Light gold, it has huge hoppy aromatics, stonefruit and citrus and a big hop flavour. 'Resinous, tangy and super-tasty!' he puts it simply, with a light malt background and a hop intensity building to a long, smooth, bitter finish. And how's the label?!

Try this over ice-cream

The Pedro Ximenez grape is normally reserved for blending, but this is a single vineyard Sherry sourced from Jerez' finest growing zone in the Macharnudo district. Following harvest, the grapes were spread on special mats in the sun to cause evaporation and increase the sugar level. With its intense mahogany colouring, this is an exceptionally elegant Sherry, with notes of molasses, treacle, raisin and smoke on the rich, velvety palate. A unique experience.

NEW FROM PASQUA

Pasqua are noted for producing great value wines expressive of their origins, particularly out of their home region of Verona. Valpolicella wines – the closest to the heart of Verona – come in a variety of styles, but the most prized are the long-lived Amarone della Valpolicella. Amarone wines are made from the same group of indigenous varieties as 'ordinary' Valpolicella, utilising the unique appassimento technique. This involves drying the freshly harvested grapes to concentrate the sugars and flavours. Pasqua have adopted appassimento techniques that are slightly different to deliver a new selection of distinctly styled, Amarone-inspired offerings.

Pasqua PASSIMENTO Veneto IGT 2009

was $24.50 now $19.00 66091

CASE OF 6 ONLY $18.50 A BOTTLE

Passimento takes its name from the traditional Veneto method of drying hand-picked grapes, which increases the sugar concentration by a third. The dehydrated fruit was then pressed, fermented and oak aged in French barrels. The bouquet shows cherry, cranberry and herb aromas underscored by currant notes; the smoothly textured palate has concentrated berry flavours supported by understated oak, with supple tannins providing a nicely rounded, savoury finish.

Pasqua RIPASSO Valpolicella Superiore DOC 2009

was $32.50 now $29.00 66092

CASE OF 6 ONLY $28.50 A BOTTLE

The term Ripasso (meaning repassed) applies to Valpolicella wine that has been made by re-fermenting with the pomace (leftover grape skins) from Amarone and extending the maceration. Matured for twelve months in oak and a further nine in bottle, it is a plush, poised red wine displaying concentrated aromas of cherry, mulberry and toasty nuances. Richly flavoured and full bodied, it has a ripe, supple tannin structure and a fine, lingering finish.

Pasqua AMARONE Della Valpolicella DOC 2008

was $64.50 now $49.00 66090

CASE OF 6 ONLY $48.50 A BOTTLE

Amarone is a wine style unique to the Valpolicella region, produced from hand harvested bunches of indigenous grapes that have been left to raisin on special racks. The resulting sugar-concentrated grapes are fermented in temperature-controlled tanks, put through malolactic and transferred to oak barriques for eighteen months. An elegant, full bodied red with cherry/berry aromas and flavours enhanced by almond and vanilla notes and a silky mouthfeel.

NEW FROM SANTA MARGHERITA

If you're a sparkling aficionado, you'll love these sensational wines from Santa Margherita's Ca' del Bosco estate. Located in the Franciacorta zone of Lombardy, the winery is at the cutting edge of Italian production and rated by Robert Parker as 'one of Italy's best sparkling winemakers.' With careful blending and extended maturation, these world-class wines regularly outshine the famous champagne brands in blind tastings. Within Italy (the world's largest importer of champagne) the wines of Ca' del Bosco outsell giants like Veuve Clicquot and Moët et Chandon.

Ca' del Bosco CUVÉE PRESTIGE Brut NV

was $64.90 now $49.00 62554

CASE OF 6 ONLY $48.50 A BOTTLE

The base wine was blended from 75% Chardonnay, 10% Pinot Blanc and 15% Pinot Noir, with each fermented separately. Following eight months of aging, the wines were blended with 20% of reserves from the finest vintages and put through the second bottle fermentation. The wine has a steady ripple of bubbles and yeasty aromas of apple and peach. It is a well-balanced, elegantly poised sparkling cuvée with a creamy mousse and an appealing fresh finish.

Ca' del Bosco Brut DOCG 2006

was $88.50 now $69.00 62548

CASE OF 6 ONLY $68.50 A BOTTLE

Made up of 80% Chardonnay, along with equal portions of Pinots Blanc and Noir, and bottle aged for twenty-one months prior to disgorging. The intensely aromatic nose displays layers of apple, pear and stonefruit underscored by yeasty notes. Dry and full bodied, it possesses a persistent, beautifully balanced character.

Ca' del Bosco Dosage Zéro DOCG 2006

was $89.50 now $69.00 62549

CASE OF 6 ONLY $68.50 A BOTTLE

Crafted from a blend of 60% Chardonnay, 23% Pinot Blanc and 17% Pinot Noir and lees aged for four years-plus. A stone-dry (no dosage) vintage sparkling wine with a bouquet displaying hints of freshly-baked bread. Well-defined pipfruit flavours are enhanced by some floral notes, a creamy mousse and a lingering, lime-accented finish.

a taste of France

A MONTHLY SELECTION OF AFFORDABLE FRENCH WINE FROM OUR EXTENSIVE RANGE

CHÂTEAU Haut Maginet Bordeaux 2009

was $24.00 now $16.90 41131

CASE OF 12 ONLY $16.40 A BOTTLE Great value Petit Château

Château Haut Maginet is a 27-hectare estate owned and operated by Catherine and Jean-Marc Jolivet, a 4th-generation winegrowing family who've gradually modernised both the winery and vineyard operations. This is a Merlot-dominated blend with a bouquet of berry and cassis melding with spicy, minty nuances. It is a well-integrated Bordeaux with a savoury, fleshy, character and distinctive fruit flavours complemented by a fine, mature tannin structure.

CHÂTEAU Ronan BY CLINET Bordeaux 2009

was $31.00 now $24.00 41137

CASE OF 12 ONLY $23.50 A BOTTLE Top Bordeaux producer's 2nd label

Though this wine cannot claim the same stature in terms of classification as Château Clinet, it punches well above its appellation. The wine, a 100% Merlot, is vinified by the renowned team at Clinet, and it shows. Ruby-red in colour, it has rich plum aromas supported by cedar nuances. The palate displays concentrated but approachable fruit flavours complemented by a supple tannin texture and a lingering finish. Already drinking well, this is a bargain.

CHÂTEAU Biré Bordeaux Supérieur 2009

was $26.00 now $18.90 41147

CASE OF 12 ONLY $18.40 A BOTTLE Just landed, great value

Owned by the Dutch-French family of Mahler-Besse, co-owners of the cru classé Chateau Palmer and one of Bordeaux' most influential winemaking families. From the excellent 2009 vintage, this is a 50% Merlot, 40% Cabernet Sauvignon, 10% Cabernet Franc blend traditionally vinified and matured for twelve months in oak. Distinctive blackberry and mulberry aromas are backed by cigar box nuances. Full bodied, generously flavoured, elegantly structured.

CHÂTEAU Doisy-Daëne GRAND VIN SEC Bordeaux Blanc 2009

was $55.00 now $39.00 41224

CASE OF 12 ONLY $38.50 A BOTTLE Don't confuse this with Doisy-Daëne's sweet wine

This Château is at the forefront of modern winemaking, with sophisticated use of stainless steel and new oak to make both Sauternes and some of the finest, freshest dry whites in the region. Owned by the Dubourdieu family since 1924, the estate is today led by Denis Dubourdieu, professor at Bordeaux' Faculty of Oenology and an acclaimed consultant. A stylish dry white with melon, pineapple and lemon aromas and flavours enlivened by a fresh, lengthy finish.

CHÂTEAU Mylord ENTRE DEUX MERS Bordeaux Blanc 2009

was $28.00 now $19.90 41142

CASE OF 12 ONLY $19.40 A BOTTLE Gold medal white blend

Château Mylord is a 45-hectare estate within the Entre-Deux-Mers appellation of Bordeaux operated by Michel and Alain Large, whose family have owned the property for five generations. A gold medal winner at the 2010 Concours Général Agricole Paris, this is a 90% Sauvignon Blanc, 10% Semillon blend. With an aromatic, lime-infused bouquet, the palate has a fine vinous character and a fresh, crisply dry finish. Works as an aperitif or as an accompaniment to seafood.

Paul Jaboulet 375ML Muscat de Beaumes-de-Venise 2009

was $32.90 now $27.90 45384

CASE OF 12 ONLY $27.40 A BOTTLE Perfect with Christmas pudding

One of the great sweet wines of the southern Rhône. It is produced from the Muscat petits grains variety, which is stop-fermented by the addition of neutral alcohol to retain natural grape sugars. Golden toned, with aromas of stonefruit, quince and candied fruit. Rich and velvety, it has great depth of honeyed fruit flavours balanced by a fresh finish. Sublime with a dessert, or all on its own.
