A little bit of honey, a whole lot of Jack.

I have a particular fondness for all things JD, so it is with some elation that I'm pleased to announce the launch of the newly conceived Jack Daniel's Tennessee Honey. This doesn't happen every day, and given Jack's proud traditions of quality and authenticity, it's no surprise that it takes so many years to bring a new family member to fruition.

Jack Honey is a blend of Jack Daniel's Tennessee Whiskey and an exceptional honey liqueur developed to work alongside Jack's unique characters. With Jack Daniel's the oldest registered distillery in America, the range now goes like this:

1. Jack Daniels: the world's best-selling single distillery whiskey
2. Jack Daniel's Tennessee Honey: a blend of Jack and a unique honey liqueur
3. Gentleman Jack: the world's only double charcoal-mellowed whiskey
4. Jack Daniel's Single Barrel: individually selected, crafted from a single barrel
5. Jack Daniel's Ready To Drink range of pre-mixes

I've had a bottle of the Jack Honey for a while now, and have been working on the best way to drink it. It's one of three ways for me: chilled and straight, mixed with lemonade, or try it with some ginger ale.

Champagne

If anything Gallic shouts 'we do wine better than anybody else and you can stick that up your kilt!' it has to be champagne, wine's exuberant expression where celebration, romance, luxurious decadence and pedigree all combine in a heady but carefully determined mix of terroir and personality. A perfect accompaniment to Life's big moments, champagne has an equally relevant place at the dinner table (Pol Roger NV and parmesan soufflé anyone?). And with the striking vintages now on the market, it may well be time to begin your exploration of the subtly unfolding world of vintage champagne.

CHAMPAGNE Delamotte
BLANC DE BLANCS Brut NV

was $99.00 now $69.99 42850

CASE OF 6 $69.49 A BOTTLE

Not one of champagne's Big Names, Delamotte nonetheless possesses a massive pedigree as stablemate to the mighty House of Salon, the legendary, super-premium player with a fanatical following. The underrated Delamotte stands defiantly tall in that company, with its delicate, refined nuances, rich, ripe fruit and restrained complexity. Very, very good.

methodes

The French would have us believe that not all sparkling wines are created equal. While this may be difficult to dispute, with the law stating only those wines produced within the delineated area known as Champagne may be referred to by that auspicious name, it is equally true that there are some wonderful sparkling wines popping their corks from all corners of France. Here are a couple.

Brut de Charvis Méthode Traditionnelle Brut NV

was $26.90 now $18.99 43013

CASE OF 12 $18.49 A BOTTLE

They craft this a mere cork-trajectory away from the actual Champagne region; with supply and demand being what it is, one day it may even be drawn into the appellation. A big brother to the hugely popular Saint-Meyland, it uses traditional champagne varieties and methods to good effect.

43010 SAINT-MEYLAND BRUT NV

was $23.90 now $16.99

Gros Frère & Soeur BOURGOGNE HAUTES CÔTES DE NUITS Rouge 2009

was $39.00 now $29.99 41006

CASE OF 12 $29.49 A BOTTLE

The domaine Gros Frère & Soeur is located in the commune of Vosne-Romanée, the Bugatti Veyron in the Côtes de Nuits car yard, where Pinot Noir rules exclusively and the legendary Romanée-Conti vineyard is just a jealous glare away. The wines of this domaine are rustic and charming, definitely old world rather than new, and for lovers of great Burgundy, a real delight.

DOMAINE DE Bellene MAISON DIEU BOURGOGNE Pinot Noir 2009

was $44.00 now $32.99 42823

CASE OF 6 $32.49 A BOTTLE

An incredible wine from the formidable Nicolas Potel, it's little surprise that our first shipment sold out in a matter of months. Here's a tip: don't break all the wax off, just put the corkscrew straight through it and pull this otherworldly entity into yours. Magic.

BURGUNDY

Ask the globe's finest Pinot Noir and Chardonnay producers where they draw their inspiration from, and many will tell you, 'Burgundy.' Upon the aptly-named 'golden slopes,' the Côte de Nuits and Côte de Beaune, Burgundy's greatest wines are produced. The classification system was originally established by the church, the best grapes defined as from the top of the slopes, with fruit for the villagers predictably down the hill a bit. Inheritance laws have seen the vineyards divided into smaller and smaller family parcels, and within a sea of small producers, it is not uncommon for a single vineyard to have numerous owners.

BURGUNDY

DOMAINE Romanin MÂCON-SOLUTRÉ-POUILLY Blanc 2010

was $29.00 now $24.99 43720

CASE OF 12 $24.49 A BOTTLE

Mâcon is located in the southern reaches of Burgundy, the kind of appellation it's useful to recognize on restaurant lists because the wines are invariably priced below their true worth. 100% Chardonnay fruit, this unfolds its honeyed stonefruit and citrus flavours in a similar manner to its northern counterparts, but with a bit more oak and generosity on the palate.

Georges Duboeuf BEAUJOLAIS-VILLAGES 2010

was $24.00 now $16.99 43942

CASE OF 12 $16.49 A BOTTLE

From the King of Beaujolais himself, a right royal vintage: the perfect level of ripeness, cool enough to achieve the acidity and dry enough to create the balance. Perfect at room temp, slightly chilled or even warmed by the fire.

CHÂTEAU PICHON-LONGUEVILLE

Bordeaux

Reinforced by its imposing châteaux, aristocratic Bordeaux holds court at the centre of France's vinous universe. As elsewhere, it's all about the rules: the five prescribed red varieties are Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Merlot, Petit Verdot and Malbec. Within Bordeaux' left bank/right bank delineation, wines from the former are normally Cabernet-based, while the latter put their euros on Merlot. On the right bank there are only two villages, Saint-Émilion and Pomerol; the rest are to the left. Many have called 2009 the greatest vintage ever, which means that the Bordeaux entry-level releases from 2009 are some of the best-value wines on the market.

CHÂTEAU Pichon-Longueville LES TOURELLES DE LONGUEVILLE PAUILLAC Bordeaux 2009

was $118.00 now $89.00 42190

Historically the Baron's second wine, Les Tourelles de Longueville is these days more chief exec than 2IC. Each year the fruit is sourced off the same vineyards and devoted all the care and attention of a first wine. And, under the astute management of the talented Christian Seely, this is one of the very best Tourelles ever.

CHÂTEAU Dubourg SAINT-ÉMILION Bordeaux 2009

was $37.00 now $29.99 41119

CASE OF 12 $29.49 A BOTTLE

Formed from the clay of Saint-Émilion, Merlot-dominant and with just the right amount of gorgeous new oak, this shows the class you can get your hands on for next to nothing when the vintage is exceptional.

SOUTH OF France

France's southern coast produces its most diverse collection of styles. To the west are the rich, robust reds of Madiran and Banyuls, while to the east, the sun-drenched rosés from the Côtes de Provence immerse you in their vibrant, aromatic delights. Along the way, at Béziers, the Laroche family display their southern selection, a smart array of wines that bend the knee to no one when it comes to quality; and sitting comfortably alongside, Domaine Paul Mas, savvy producers of the dynamic Arrogant Frog label, produce their excellent range of Vin de Pays expressions.

Don't let the colour fool you, this is a big wine, replete with rich fruit, sensuous textures and a super-silky palate. Owned by an English family whose desire to have a family home on the Mediterranean led them here, the quality on display is some of the finest in the region.

Normally a blender, this is not a grape variety you'd expect to see very often in sole charge. It comes into its own in Spain's Priorat region, and here in southern France. Rich, savoury, underpriced.

THE Rhône

Very much a game of two halves, the 800km-long Rhône region is divided into northern and southern, the north home to France's noble and richly textured Syrah. White superstar here is the Viognier variety. The south plays host to Grenache and the Rhône's superb blended wines, resonating with names like Vacqueyras, Vinsobres and Châteauneuf-du-Pape. There is also wonderful value to be found in the Côtes du Rhône – a generic appellation of sorts where the wines can be made from grapes grown throughout the region, the most favoured being the classic Rhône blend of Grenache, Syrah and Mourvèdre.

Alsace

The go-to guys for state-of-the-art aromatics, Alsace produce some of the world's finest wines. While nowadays in French hands, the region's earlier German bloodlines still flex their muscle. Perhaps it is those same no-nonsense genes that have encouraged Alsace to move out of step with most of France and put the variety on the label (the five grown here are Pinot Gris, Riesling, Gewürztraminer, Pinot Blanc and Muscat), while restricting classification to either a simple 'AOC' (Appellation d'Origine Contrôlée) or the individually-named 'Grand Cru' vineyards.

Josmeyer

ALSACE Pinot Gris 2007

was $39.90 now $24.99 46500

CASE OF 12 $24.49 A BOTTLE

One of the region's leading innovators, Josmeyer is arguably the jewel in our Alsatian range, organic and biodynamic producers who operate at the highest level, producing dazzling aromatic wines with a purity and clarity others can only aspire to. Their house Pinot Gris sets the standard for the rest, its deliciously textured peach and honey-infused characters travelling a seemingly endless arc across your tastebuds.

Louis Sipp

ALSACE Pinot Gris 2008

was $39.00 now $24.99 46959

CASE OF 12 $24.49 A BOTTLE

Etienne Sipp heads up the family property, his considerable charm somehow permeating the wines themselves. Travelling the same organic route as Josmeyer, the Sipp wines are a little richer, more generous in nature, with a voluptuous velvety texture at their core.

DOMAINE Le Colombier

VIEILLES VIGNES VACQUEYRAS 2009

was $42.00 now $29.99 45343

CASE OF 12 $29.49 A BOTTLE

Nestled 30km north-east of Avignon in the southern Rhône, the AOC of Vacqueyras was officially recognized in 2000, with the vines at Le Colombier some of the oldest found in the appellation. 80-20% Grenache-Mourvèdre, this is a dense and richly fragrant red blend with bright berry characters and plenty of weight. A great match with a hearty winter stew.

DOMAINE Nicolas Boiron

CÔTES DU RHÔNE 2009

was $31.00 now $24.99 41306

CASE OF 12 $24.49 A BOTTLE

The Boiron family have been producing Rhône wines for five generations, and rate very highly on the Robert Parker hymn sheet. Dominated by Grenache, with a decent portion of Syrah adding depth and flavour, the vintage is superb and the wine stunning.

Paul Jaboulet

PARALLÈLE 45 CÔTES DU RHÔNE 2009

was $23.90 now $17.99 45418

CASE OF 12 $17.49 A BOTTLE

After almost two centuries in the game, this is one of the Rhône's iconic brands, where new owners have introduced a revamp and a new lease of life. An attractive entry-level option, the 45 is a Grenache, Syrah, Mourvèdre blend with a luscious, succulent, fruit-forward character.

THE LOIRE

While the rather large Loire Valley, with its 70-plus appellations, is a treasure trove of vinous expressions, we focus here on the famed Sauvignon-derived, smoky, mineral-tinged Sancerre and aromatic, steely-flavoured Pouilly-Fumé that recline upon their beds of chalk and flint, eying each other across the Loire. Produced from Chenin Blanc and ranging from austere to opulent, the equally eminent wines of Vouvray float down from their chalk-lined plateau to join the clever Alsations as long-lived wines with huge aging potential.

DOMAINE Bourillon Dorelans
LA COULÉE D'ARGENT
VOUVRAY Sec 2009

was $36.00 now $24.99 40977

CASE OF 12 $24.49 A BOTTLE

Bourillon Dorelans are leading-edge practitioners in Vouvrayland, with owner-winemaker Frederic Bourillon quite the character. In contrast to his smile-inducing but somewhat brash nature, the wines abound with signs of elegance and finesse. Exclusively Chenin Blanc, this is a great alternative to Chardonnay, the honeyed palate weighty, with nuances of chalk and lime and a mouth-tingling texture, all signed off with a stunningly long finish.

Pascal Jolivet
POUILLY-FUMÉ 2010

was $42.90 now $32.99 40998

CASE OF 12 $32.49 A BOTTLE

With an eye fixed firmly on this part of the world, dynamic Sauvignon maker and shaker Pascal Jolivet currently has a joint venture on the go in Hawkes Bay. Vibrantly clean, his P-F is an elegant, smoky delight, the exquisite mineral characters nudging it towards sublimity.

CHABLIS

Chablis is one of the most misunderstood regions in France; for you fastidious folk, yes, it is indeed part of Burgundy, as its northern outpost. There is only one variety that counts here, and that's Chardonnay, which thrives in the same chalk soils that originate in Dover and run through Champagne. Chablis is Chardonnay in one of its purest expressions. If you are a lover of big, buttery versions, then further down into Burgundy will be more your thing than the pure styles to be found here.

DOMAINE Séguinot-Bordet
PETIT CHABLIS 2009

was $32.00 now $19.99 40466

CASE OF 12 $19.49 A BOTTLE

S-B are currently working the 13th generation of the family business, and started recording their history back in 1590. With that much tradition to keep track of they could be accused of falling asleep at the wheel, but in fact Jean-Francois Bordet has forged a wonderful union between the old and the new and taken his family house to another level. There is now so much demand for the wines that S-B have had to allocate their product. The first cab off their rank, the Petit Chablis is fresh, vibrant and richly flavoured.

Laroche
CHABLIS 2010

was $40.00 now $29.99 48569

CASE OF 6 $29.49 A BOTTLE

2010 was a little cooler than 2009, providing conditions that suited the Chablis vines down to their shell-encrusted roots. The Laroche is outstanding: notes of lime, lemon and chalk encase a purity, precision and finesse to die for. What won't kill you is the price – it's a bargain.

MOUTERE MAESTROS

Translating as 'Heaven's Field' this Upper Moutere boutique vineyard is a testament to the vision and purpose of Beth Eggers, a fifth-generation descendent of German settlers. Her passion and her commitment to sustainable viticulture are reflected in the wines. Yields are drastically restricted, the wines share an admirable concentration and style, and all are released with extended bottle ageing. The steep vineyard is planted out in Cabernet, Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc and Viognier. Stylish and distinctive, with the stamp of quality about them, Beth's wines are a revelation.

MAGNIFICENTLY
MARLBOROUGH

There is a devoted following across the globe for the Jules Taylor approach: handcrafted, high quality boutique expressions produced in small quantities, using an intimate understanding of the local terroir and the best Awatere and Wairau Valley fruit available.

After a winemaking OE that took her from Marlborough to Italy, to Australia and back to New Zealand, Jules had a crack at creating her own wines, culminating in the 2001 release of a Pinot Gris and a Riesling under the Jules Taylor brand. From those initial small beginnings, the Jules Taylor portfolio has developed to include her justifiably famous Sauvignon Blanc and a very smart range of Pinot Gris, Chardonnay, Grüner Veltliner and Pinot Noir.

In just 11 years Jules Taylor wines have garnered, along with all the accolades, a worldwide reputation for successfully harnessing Marlborough's unique qualities within her superb portfolio.

CASE OF 12 $19.49 A BOTTLE

A Marlborough classic

This wine is much-lauded and often purchased, as fine an expression of Marlborough's (and NZ's) most beloved variety as you'll find. A blend of fruit from Hawkesbury and the Awatere Valley, it opens proceedings with a burst of passionfruit aromas followed by hints of capsicum and citrus. As they circle your mouth, the rich tropical fruit flavours emit their classic herbaceous signals before signing off with a scintillatingly tangy finish.

Weightier, more luscious style of PG

Complex, textural and nicely weighted. Notes of Nashi and stonefruit tinged with honeysuckle caress the olfactory senses, while the spicy fruit flavours are enhanced by a fleshy character and a viscous mouthfeel. Beautifully poised, slightly off-dry and somewhat reminiscent of the superb Alsatian stylings. Lovely drinking.

Jules Taylor

MARLBOROUGH Pinot Noir 2010

was $36.00 now $24.99 12456

CASE OF 12 $24.49 A BOTTLE

Charming, seductive, flavoursome

Here, JT uses a combination of traditional and modern winemaking techniques to good effect. Her Pinot is a shiny, cerise-fringed blushing beauty with spicy cherry and mocha dancing on the nose, the deep, rich, penetrating fruit flavours enhanced by a touch of the savoury and a supple mouthfeel.

Clearwater Cove MARLBOROUGH Sauvignon Blanc 2011

was $15.99 now $9.99 10003

Made by Yealands Estate

Clearwater Cove is camped out on the edge of the Yealand's Estate in the Awatere Valley, where its selected parcels of low-yielding vines deliver up classic Awatere Sauvignon. With gooseberry, tropical fruit, herbs and nettles on the nose, the palate is typically fresh and nicely weighted, and finishes on a long, lively note.

Lake Chalice VINEYARD SELECTION Merlot 2011

was $19.99 now $15.99 13617

CASE OF 12 $15.49 A BOTTLE

Consistent quality producer

The Vineyard Selection is a blend of Hawkes Bay and Marlborough Merlot fruit with a wee dash of Malbec to enliven the plummy proceedings. A vivacious ruby red with an expressive bouquet of damson and mulberry accented by spicy oak nuances, the savoury fruit flavours are given a nudge by a lick of coffee and a hint of spice.

Catalina Sounds

MARLBOROUGH Pinot Gris 2011

was $26.99 now $19.99 13792

CASE OF 6 $19.49 A BOTTLE

The other Peter Jackson makes vino, and after a decent number of years as a resident of Marlborough, the Catalina Sounds winemaker continues to be fascinated by the region's potential for cool-climate viticulture and the vibrant fruit flavours it produces. The C-S Pinot Gris is quintessentially Marlborough, with pure, fresh flavours, creamy textures and a delicate touch of sweetness from the optimally ripened fruit.

Flying Mouton

HAWKES BAY Sauvignon Blanc 2009

was $12.50 now $10.99 14253

CASE OF 12 $10.00 A BOTTLE

Wedged as we are in Marlborough's vicelike grip on Sauvignon Blanc, it's easy to forget sometimes that other regions are also producing excellent expressions. This single vineyarder is from the Bay's Maraekakaho district, and displays its origins proudly, with ripe melon and peach notes chasing each other around your mouth while a hint of herb plays nicely in the background.

Chakana

ARGENTINE Syrah 2011

was $17.90 now $14.99 90148

CASE OF 12 $14.49 A BOTTLE

This rich yet destitutely-priced Syrah makes its way to us from the unique terroir within Chakana's Luján de Cuyo vineyards, proffering its aromatic gifts of blueberry and cherry, pepper and mint before tossing in a mouthful of concentrated fruit, seamless oak and supple tannins. There are Italian sensibilities in the mix in the form of Chakana's Pelizzatti family, so naturally this works a treat with food, especially winter's comfort ones.

Brookfields BURNFOOT

HAWKES BAY Merlot 2011

was $19.90 now $16.99 11382

CASE OF 12 $16.49 A BOTTLE

This single vineyard Merlot was born and bred in the Tuki Tuki Valley, just a pebble-skip across the river from the Principality of Te Mata. Earthy and textural, it exhales aromas of plum, berry and violet, with a little leather thrown in for the intrigue. In the mouth it's all about fruit, weight and a swelte mouthfeel. Bellows from across the room, 'gimme food!'

Russian Jack

CENTRAL OTAGO Pinot Noir 2011

was $21.90 now $16.99 18949

CASE OF 12 $16.49 A BOTTLE

We've always loved this label – makes you want to start blowing on the bottle as soon as it's empty. The wine's no slouch either; Jack is a very approachable and easy-going fellah, suitably red, with inviting, earth-touched cherries and strawbs on the nose. Delicious juicy-fruit flavours slide on down riding a silky-smooth texture and a fresh-tasting finish. Excellent. Value.

TASTY TIP

FOOD TIPS FROM DIDA'S GM, LIZ WHEADON

Cheese and champagne, it's a great combination. In fact, champagne is wonderful with all sorts of cheeses; Pol Roger supremo, Christian Pol-Roger, has a particular affection for Pol Roger matched with Grana Pardano, while a flute of Delamotte's Blanc de Blancs is superb when paired with a ripe Brie de Meaux (they come from the same part of France, which always seems to help) and a well-aged piece of Comte is delightful combined with a good vintage champagne.

VALRHONA CHOCOLATE

For serious chocolate, you can't go past Valrhona; located in the northern Rhône's Hermitage Village, it is served in the world's most prestigious establishments, including, of course, Dida's. This ultra hands-on company is dedicated to maintaining the highest quality; through Fair Trade growers, they work directly with the plantations to ensure that the raw product is top-grade. A wonderful eating chocolate, Valrhona makes a great addition to your cheese board and functions beautifully in cooking as well; we recommend a Valrhona chocolate tart paired with a rich Syrah from the Rhône, a match made in... well, the Rhône, actually.

BRIE DE MEAUX

Brie de Meaux is a meatier style of brie, the Johnny Depp of white rind cheeses, in fact. When selecting your cheese, the rind on the outside should exude mushroom aromas, and the cheese should be creamy, with wild mushroom characters, a light fortified flavour and a smooth and runny texture. This style of cheese matches perfectly with a glass of Pinot Noir, particularly the Burgundian variety. Brilliant with Domaine de Bellene's Bourgogne 2009.

Perelada 5 FINCAS
Reserva 2006

was $29.90 now $24.99 88049

CASE OF 12 $24.49 A BOTTLE

These guys make a very smart red to equal their standout cava. A blend of varieties harvested from five different vineyards (fincas) located in the Emporadà region, the spicy cherries and violets on the nose are embellished by a touch of oak. The complex fleshy palate has tiers of berry, spice, liquorice and brambly nuances, integrated with the oak and supported by supple tannins.

PETALOS BIERZO 2009

was $35.00 now $28.99 88056

CASE OF 12 $28.49 A BOTTLE

Produced from old Mencia vines situated in the breathtaking Bierzo terrain in Spain's north-west. Deeply red and glossy, with haunting scents of rose petal and wild flower, black cherry and liquorice, this is yet another Alvaro Palacios triumph, with lingering dark berryfruit flavours underpinned by elegant, savoury overtones.

ANGOVE FAMILY WINEMAKERS AN AUSTRALIAN WINEMAKING DYNASTY

The renowned Angove Family celebrated two major milestones in 2011; The 125th anniversary of the family's first vineyard, planted by the company's founder Dr William Angove, and the establishment 100 years ago of their Renmark winery by William's son Thomas.

Successive generations of Angoves have pushed the family business resolutely forward to create one of Australia's largest privately-owned wine companies. They are also quietly pioneering the transition to organic viticulture, with 36 hectares certified organic and a further 30 hectares in conversion. The entire Angove winery site is now fully certified to produce organic wines.

The Angove portfolio is extensive, with fruit drawn from all of South Australia's premium winegrowing regions, and their range has earned accolades and awards throughout the world. It includes single vineyard and regional wines celebrating the diverse stylings that are the hallmark of South Australia.

was $29.99 now $19.99 10081

CASE OF 6 $19.49 A BOTTLE

Intense aromas of crushed herb, nettle and mineral rule the nose. The Yealands Reserve is a balanced and elegantly structured wine, the classic Awatere Valley characters enhanced by a zesty citrus finish.

CHARD FARM

CITIZENS OF CENTRAL

Encouraged by the endeavours of Central Otago's very first winemaking pioneers, and against all rational advice, Rob Hay planted out his newly acquired Chard Farm orchard in grapes, in the process neatly turning it into a vineyard, something we're fairly sure he'd secretly always wanted to do. Carved into the hillside within a breathtaking landscape, it's hard to imagine how you wouldn't just get up every morning and go fishing. However, the Hay family have seemingly overcome that obstacle and gone on to create some of the region's finest vinous expressions. Rob Hay puts it thus: 'It was in hindsight a big gamble, but it sure as hell felt right.' And, even more succinctly: 'Thank God for Pinot Noir.'
