MAGNUM MAGIC

WHEN BIGGER REALLY IS BETTER

It's true! The wine in magnums invariably does taste better than the 750ml model. It's because the wine matures more slowly in the larger-format bottle, and as the magnum's cork is around the same size as that of the smaller bottle, the negative effects of oxidation are less pronounced.

48212 POL ROGER CHAMPAGNE
BRUT RÉSERVE NV
1-5L $145.00

This aristocratic champagne delivers layer upon layer of exquisitely balanced flavour and texture, the lush fruit and toast defined by precise, refreshing citrus and acid, its qualities further enhanced by the larger-format bottle.

49516 TAITTINGER CHAMPAGNE
BRUT RÉSERVE NV
1-5L $145.00

A high proportion of Chardonnay in the blend lends this an elegance that balances its understated power. With florals, stonefruit and biscuity notes enticingly interwoven, the crisp palate cascades with opulence and poise.

41500 RUINART CHAMPAGNE
BLANC DE BLANCS BRUT NV
1-5L $189.00

The oldest house in Champagne, Ruinart was established in 1729 and boasts an astonishing history. Made primarily from Premier Cru Chardonnay, their Blanc de Blancs is intensely aromatic, precise and radiantly clean.

62811 TOSTI PIEDMONT
PROSECCO DOC
1-5L $25.00

Great price for a magnum of good prosecco. Gently sparkling, with a delicate bouquet, the crisp, off-dry palate boasts fresh, fruity flavours and a balancing swirl of mineral. Equally at home as an aperitif or accompanying your meal.

17453 ALLAN SCOTT MARLBOROUGH
CECILIA BRUT NV
1-5L $60.00

A fitting testament to the meticulous care that the Scott family take with the production of their sparkling wines. A silky and subtle sparkler with a smartly tart palate and creamy mouthfeel.

12115 CLOUDY BAY MARLBOROUGH
SAUVIGNON BLANC 2014
1-5L $59.00

This benchmark wine redrew the global Sauvignon Blanc map. Intense, fragrant and superbly varietal, it fully deserves its pedigree status. And let's face it: with a magnum in hand, you'll feel much better about sharing.

13642 ROCKBURN CENTRAL OTAGO
PINOT NOIR 2013
1-5L $99.00

An iconic Central Otago Pinot Noir with a considerable pedigree, under wine-maker Malcolm Rees-Francis the Rockburn has continued to grow its rep. Smoky, aromatic, elegant and beautifully balanced, it's one of our finest.

66201 PASQUA LE COLLEZIONI
MONTEPULCIANO D'ABRUZZO DOC 2013
1-5L $16.99

The grape variety is Montepulciano from east central Italy's Abruzzo region. An easy-drinking Italian favourite with piercingly fresh fruit flavours couched in a great structure. Rich and succulent, and for 1.5 litres, wonderfully priced.

FROM THE cellar

PRE-AGED AND READY TO POUR

CLOUDY BAY MARLBOROUGH
PELORUS VINTAGE 2009

◀ $36.99 12125

New Zealand sparkling wine has well and truly come of age, and sitting comfortably at the top table is this vintage expression from Pelorus. Aromas of nougat, apple, pear and honey grace the generous and superbly textural palate, with citrus notes illuminating the layers of brioche and almond. Careful cellaring has enhanced the wine's complexity.

VILLA MARIA SINGLE VINEYARD
IHUMATEO CHARDONNAY 2012

$29.99 19539 ▶

With 2015 Chardonnay expressions starting to hit the shelves, it's good to be able to look at Villa Maria's Ihumateo single vineyard model with a bit of age on it. A complex aromatic mix of peach, citrus blossom, toasted cashew and smoky, flinty notes heralds a refined and textural palate that signs off with a mineral-edged flourish.

PASK HAWKES BAY
DECLARATION CABERNET MERLOT MALBEC 2007

◀ $47.99 10845

CASE OF 6 $39.99 A BOTTLE

Part of the Kate Radburnd-helmed Declaration range, this is one of Pask's top drops, and with time on its side it's drinking brilliantly. Mineral and earthy notes enhance the concentrated fruit, resulting in an opulent blend of spice, white pepper, cedar and cassis, with fine tannins and a masterful balance adding the icing.

ROCKBURN CENTRAL OTAGO
PARKBURN RIESLING 2010

☀ $16.99 12466

CASE OF 12 $14.99 A BOTTLE

Although the variety tends to fly under the radar, there's nothing quite like a well-aged Riesling, where initial intensely fruity, acidic tendencies are harnessed and softened and secondary characters emerge. Delicately sweet, elegantly long.

GREYWACKE MARLBOROUGH
WILD SAUVIGNON 2013

$34.99 13829

CASE OF 12 $32.99 A BOTTLE

Yep, Sauvignon Blanc can age. Kevin Judd keeps this one back and releases it at the ideal moment. An intriguingly intricate, textural, succulent mouthful of lemon curd and vanilla custard with a touch of dried herbs and a lingering grapefruit finish.

MISHA'S VINEYARD
THE HIGH NOTE PINOT NOIR 2010

$39.99 16602

Jewel in the MV crown, a gorgeous red with inviting aromas of blackberry and red summer fruits, dark chocolate and exotic hints of spice. A warm and deep mouthful of silkiness, and a rare opportunity to try NZ Pinot with just the right amount of aging.

YALUMBA BAROSSA
THE OCTAVIUS OLD VINE SHIRAZ 2009

$94.00 20954

The only red table wine in the world aged in 90-litre oak octaves, crafted by Yalumba's own coopers. Robust, powerful, textural, with six years in bottle the fruit still has primary touches, with a delightful mix of secondary notes evolving. One of the best.

GIANNI GAGLIARDO
SERRE BAROLO 2005

$299.00 62747

Serre is a single vineyard in Barolo, and one of its top cru. Gagliardo held stock back and aged it at the winery for ten years, to release when the wine was ready. These bottles have only ever been stored at Gagliardo, then shipped, temperate-controlled, to NZ. There are only 1,000 available worldwide.

REAP THE REWARDS OF AGING IT YOURSELF

DULUC DE BRANAIRE-DUCRU
SAINT-JULIEN 2010

$54.99 44653

CASE OF 12 $49.99 A BOTTLE

The second wine of the high-flying 2nd-Growth Château Branaire-Ducru, this is, quite simply, stunning. One word: balance. With its generous fruit, superb concentration, beautiful integration, well-formed tannins, fresh and lively palate and exquisite length, it has it all. A case is a must.

DOMAINE DE BELLENE
NUITS-SAINT-GEORGES VIEILLES VIGNES 2010

$67.00 42839

CASE OF 6 $65.00 A BOTTLE

Already a fan of Burgundian maestro Nicolas Potel's entry-level offering and wondering if it can get any better? It certainly can. From the village of Nuits-Saint-Georges, this vibrant and sensual Pinot is floral and fragrant with appealing acidity. Delightfully substantial, sweet and creamy.

BARROS DOURO
QUINTA DA GALEIRA VINTAGE 2009

$79.00 79710

By port standards, Barros, founded in 1913, is a relative newcomer, but they've evolved to become a prestige brand, based on their top-rated vineyard holdings, source of their outstanding vintage expressions. The 2009 displays intense aromatic nuances over gently unfolding layers of lush, voluptuous flavours. Superbly poised.

TE AWA GIMBLETT GRAVELS
MERLOT CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2013

$26.99 19057

CASE OF 6 $24.99 A BOTTLE

A new top-range, Merlot-dominant combination of free-draining Gimblett Gravels brilliance and one of the Bay's finest vintages, all off Te Awa's oldest vines. An amazing red wine that is, as far as we're concerned, underpriced. Will cellar for 5-10 years.

MILLS REEF GIMBLETT GRAVELS
ELSPETH SYRAH 2013

$39.99 14505

CASE OF 6 $37.99 A BOTTLE

BOSQUET-DES-PAPES
CHÂTEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE 2013

$52.00 41301

CASE OF 12 $49.99 A BOTTLE

BdP's 2013 Châteauneuf-du-Pape has incredible depth and richness from the vintage, with opulent dark berry, pepper, cassis and liquorice characters making their presence felt. One of 2013's best.

CHARLES-HEIDSIECK
CHAMPAGNE BRUT VINTAGE 2005

$135.00 41517

CASE OF 6 $130.00 A BOTTLE

Vintage champagne has to be one of the most undervalued cellaring wines out there. Age it for 5-15 years, whatever it is, and you'll be immensely rewarded for your efforts. The 2005 Charles is a class act, more than worth the patience required.

NGA WAKA'S ROGER PARKINSON

NGA WAKA

One of the many great things about Nga Waka is that they've been around a while now, originally getting the ball rolling back in 1988; not only have Roger Parkinson and his team been able to carve a distinct niche as winemakers of quality and individuality, it means you can wander onto the subject of old vines.

'I saw the difference on our Home Block vines at about fifteen years,' he says, 'where the varietal character of the fruit starts to become somewhat less important, but more interesting because of richness, balance and texture, all the things that are critical for food wines. With vine age the character of the vineyard is more strongly expressed.'

Roger's abiding interest in things vinous began at the age of 14, when he was exposed to his father Gordon's fascination for the subject during a diplomatic tenure in France. The Parkinsons purchased their first block in 1986 and named Nga Waka after the three hills Nga Waka a Kupe that are the backdrop to Martinborough.

Alongside the Three Paddles early-drinking styles and the more refined, cellar-friendly Nga Waka estate range, Roger also produces a selection of exceptional single vineyard wines.

NGA WAKA MARTINBOROUGH HOME BLOCK CHARDONNAY 2014

 $29.99 17585

A classic single vineyard Chardonnay returns after a prolonged absence, hand harvested off Nga Waka's original Home Block vines, planted back in 1988 on their own root stock. With all the stops thoroughly pulled out, it's rich, complex, buttery and textural, with great aging potential for those who can go the distance.

Nga Waka's standard Chardonnay is any thing but, a carefully judged blend of estate fruit displaying ripe peach and tropical fruit characters, subtle oak nuances and a silky, textural mouthfeel. Deftly executed and always excellent value.

CÔTES DU RHÔNE

As the mighty Rhône flows south towards the Mediterranean, it unites more than twenty individual vinous appellations (AOC) within the Rhône Valley's northern and southern sub-regions. The area as a whole, though, is covered by the Côtes-du-Rhône AOC, a designation that accounts for 80% of the total volume produced.

The bulk of the wines (predominantly red, but with some whites and rosés) are sourced from the southern region. The AOC legislation allows for up to 21 varieties to be used in red blends, but states that they must include a minimum of 40% Grenache, along with portions of Syrah and Mourvèdre, and that they may also include Cinsault, Carignan and other minor varieties.

A significant amount of good quality wines are produced by co-operatives, but the real treasures come from individual domaines and producer/négociants with their own particular styles, creating a collection of approachable, food-friendly, great value wines that are held in high regard around the world.

HARDYS

Hardys are one of the New World's great wine producers, with the fifth generation of the Hardy family now helming the operation. 20-year-old Englishman Thomas Hardy arrived in Australia in 1850, and by 1857 he'd bottled his first vintage, in the process establishing one of the country's foremost winemaking dynasties.

Initially working for South Australia's pioneering winemaker, John Reynell, Hardy purchased his first property, Bankside, in 1853, with his wines becoming the first in Australia to be awarded gold medals at the International Wine Shows in Bordeaux, 1882, and Paris, 1889.

Only recently celebrating 160 years in the winemaking business, to date Hardys wines have been awarded almost 7,000 awards, a haul that includes over 1,000 gold medals. Under the stewardship of 5th generation family member Bill Hardy and Hardys' 19th and current Chief Winemaker, Paul Lapsley, that tally will only increase as the company continues its long tradition of blending between regions and varieties to create hallmark wines of character and complexity.
