Greetings from the depths of Autumn. Feeling a little pre-winter chill settling around our shoulders, we've opted this month to cosy up to the fiery red and yellow corona of the Iberian Peninsula's crowning glory, Spain. Having, over a number of years, somewhat fallen for the place and its vinous delights, some in Glengarry might Facebook that we're 'in a relationship.' Indeed, within the bounds of Kiwiville, our knowledge of the wines and our extensive range of Spanish vinos are second to none.

So why the high regard? Because. While everyone is currently going loopy over Italian Prosecco, it is Spanish cava that sits there quietly over-delivering. When we're able to sell the sterling Perelada's reserve cava for a mere $14.99, you know you're tapping into some serious value. And, what's more, the Spanish reds really can be superb. Packed with flavour and overflowing with value, the best of them stand confidently alongside the world's finest expressions, encompassing a diversity that is truly impressive.

As with the French and the Italians, Spanish wines are made to be consumed in tandem with their local cuisine, and given the wide variety of food styles to be found in Spain, the sky is the limit, really, when it comes to what's available to dress up your dinner. With the majority of this range only available from Glengarry, we've hand-selected the wines and have strong relationships with their makers, to whom we pay visits on a regular basis. P.S. Don't overlook the back page, where you'll find the latest additions to our excellent range of Grower champagnes.

PASK

It took Chris Pask to see the potential for viticulture in what is now one of New Zealand's prime viticultural and winemaking areas. In 1981 he planted the first vines in Gimblett Road and kicked off the now globally-lauded Gimblett Gravels wine district. His instincts were right on the money.

When Kate Radburn joined Pask in 1991, the die was cast for a remarkable association. She became co-owner in 1993 and was appointed Managing Director in 1999. Kate has worked more than 30 vintages in Hawkes Bay and has become one of this country's most acclaimed winemakers.

Committed to environmentally sustainable practices, the Pask Winery output is sourced from their own 60-hectares of vineyards in the Gimblett Gravels region. Now you'll encounter a new logo and three newly-defined ranges of wine, outfitted with their own brand-spanking livery, as Pask up the ante and propel themselves forward into a new era of winemaking brilliance.

The PASK range represents the very essence of Pask's Gimblett Gravels vineyards, with a focus on what they grow best: Chardonnay, Syrah and Bordeaux-style reds. These wines are highly structured and intensely flavoured, with very good palate weight and texture.

Spain

THE REGIONS

BIERZO

Spain has more michelen three-star restaurants than any other country. While you'll find many in San Sebastian, the real gems lie in the back streets and the tapas bars. Bierzo was until 15 years ago a forgotten DO, one of Spain's oldest, replete with small plots of old vines producing rivers of passable reds for thirsty locals. Into town rides Alvaro Palacios and his nephew Ricardo, seeing the potential of the local Mencia variety and the steep, often neglected vineyards. Some well-judged rejigging and voila! Intense, thrilling reds and a new lease of life for this rejuvenated DO.

DESCENDIENTES DE J. PALACIOS: RICARDO MORENO AND ALVARO PALACIOS

DOMINIO DE TARES RIOJA BALTOS MENCIA 2012

$19.99 88115

CASE OF 6 $17.99 A BOTTLE

Produced from old-vine Mencia grapes, a warm and vibrant red with aromatics of blackberry and cranberry augmented with notes of liquorice and oak. Spice and supple tannins add the finishing touches to a well integrated, ripely flavoured palate.

DESCENDIENTES DE J. PALACIOS BIERZO PETALOS 2014

$29.99 88067

CASE OF 12 $24.99 A BOTTLE

The small plots of old Mencia vines clinging to their slopes produce an intense floral nose that casts a lush veil over the savoury characters lying beneath. Earthy notes and vibrant acidity give way to round, luscious fruit. A seductive, early-drinking style.

RÍAS BAIXAS

Just down the road from Bierzo is the DO of Rías Baixis, where the favoured variety is the white Albariño grape, thanks to the DO's location on Spain's north-western coast and its combination of warm Spanish sun and cooling sea breezes. The wines here are crisp and fresh, and match perfectly the local cuisine, which is dominated by seafood. Razor clams are a particular speciality.

ZIOS RÍAS BAIXAS ALBARIÑO 2014

$19.99 88111

CASE OF 12 $17.99 A BOTTLE

A fabulously fragrant, rich and expansive offering. The palate has a fresh acidity from the influence of the sea, a viscosity not dissimilar to Alsatian Pinot Gris and a crisp, fresh finish that's calling out for a languid luncheon of oysters and white fish.

RIOJA

In this most widely recognised of the Spanish wine DOs there are bodegas based on France's grand châteaux. Two varieties prevail here: Tempranillo, with its bright red notes and liquorice undertones and the chewy, textural and succulent Grenache. The capital Logrono is famous for its tapas street, Calle de Laurel, where each bar specialises in a different dish (one will serve only mushrooms, the next, prawns) and the evening meal involves moving from one to another.

MARQUÉS DE CÁCERES RIOJA ROSADO 2013

$16.99 87979

The leading producer of modern Rioja, these guys have done wonders for Spain's wine reputation; their quality's great, the value spot on. Tempranillo and Grenache grapes are blended here to create a superbly aromatic, forward style of rosé.

SOLAR VIEJO

RIOJA COSECHA 2014

$14.99 88014

An inviting rush of bright, fragrant fruits, boasting a complex mix of typical Rioja Alavesa characters: raspberry, cherry, strawberry, blackcurrant and blackberry enhanced with touches of fruit yoghurt, fresh tea leaves and a hint of liquorice.

FINCA NUEVA

RIOJA RESERVA 2009

$21.99 89813

CASE OF 6 $19.99 A BOTTLE

The jewel in the Finca Nueva crown. Tempranillo fruit matured for 24 months in French barriques, bottled unfiltered and bottle aged prior to release. Soft, vanillin-edged cherry and plum characters. Signs off with a lingering, velvet-lined finish.

LAN

RIOJA CRIANZA 2011

$24.99 77202

CASE OF 6 $22.99 A BOTTLE

Comprised of 100% Tempranillo fruit, the Lan is fresh, vibrant and light on its feet. After twelve months in barrel, the bright fruit, smooth tannins and crisp acidity make it a great accompaniment to the likes of pasta or cheese.

PALACIOS REMONDO

RIOJA LA MONTESA 2011

$24.99 88054

CASE OF 12 $20.99 A BOTTLE

Alvaro Palacios' family winery, located in Rioja Baja. His love of the Grenache variety and his skill at transforming it into exceptional expressions has revived the fortunes of both the winery and the area. Generous and juicy, rich and textural.

$34.99 87800

CASE OF 6 $33.99 A BOTTLE

Premium Rioja producer Allende is located in the hill town of Briones in Rioja Alta. With a flicker of minerality at the edges of the bright blackberry fruits and a tickle of spice, this is a dense yet pure expression, modern and vibrantly edgy.

MARQUÉS DE MURRIETA

RIOJA RESERVA 2010

$54.00 81019

CASE OF 6 $49.00 A BOTTLE

A new vintage with fruit from the highly regarded Ygay estate. Classic Riojan notes of cherry, plum, smoke and vanillin oak. Robust, layered, complex, the acid keeping things bright while a chocolate and plummy richness delivers the weight.

VALENCIA

On Spain's eastern coast, the DO here is Utiel-Requena, historically linked to producing more bulk wine than quality. A few producers are starting to adjust this view. One leading the charge is Mas de Bazán, which is rapidly procuring a rep for its excellent reds. The most renowned grape variety in the DO is the indigenous Bobal variety, which somehow thrives in the extreme, dry conditions and poor soils.

MAS DE BAZÁN

UTIEL-REQUENA CRIANZA BOBAL 2012

$16.99 81089

CASE OF 6 $14.99 A BOTTLE

A great value red wine crafted from 50-year-old Bobal vines. On the nose, berryfruits and damson plums mingle with nutmeg and vanilla. A smooth, ripe, mouthfilling red with a fine tannin structure and a lingering savoury aftertaste.

MAS DE BAZÁN

UTIEL-REQUENA RESERVA BOBAL 2011

$21.99 81087

CASE OF 6 $19.99 A BOTTLE

Made from the indigenous Bobal, this comes off low-yielding vines that are almost a century old. With fragrant red berries dominating the nose and palate, it's superbly concentrated, displaying sweet tannins and a flex of acid muscle.

TORO

Long overshadowed by its illustrious neighbour, Ribera de Duero, is the lesser-known DO of Toro. Famous until recently as the home of Spain's most expensive wine, Vega Sicilia, that crown now belongs to Priorat and Alvaro Palacios' L'Ermita. Of late there has been quite an influx of top producers moving upstream to Toro and loving what they find there.

TESO LA MONJA TORO ALMIREZ 2012

$34.99 87790

CASE OF 6 $29.99 A BOTTLE

Made from Tinta de Toro (suggest in Toro that it's Tempranillo, and you better know where the door is). Despite all that, this is Tempranillo, elegant and powerful, small-scale, sustainably produced, aged for 12 months in French oak. Gorgeous.

CATALONIA

In northern Spain towards the Pyrénées and France, on the coast in Catalonia, is the DO of Penedès, based around the wondrous architectural and culinary delight that is Barcelona. The people in these parts really know their food, and Penedès is responsible for Spain's top cava wines.

PERELADA BRUT RESERVA CAVA NV

$14.99 88051

CASE OF 6 $12.99 A BOTTLE

Quaffed by kings (Iberian ones, that is), this is an A-lister Spanish sparkler, the smoky minerality of the citrus fruit lending an aristocracy that's hard to go past. Lively, zesty, slightly floral, deliciously dry, it's remarkable value for the price.

PERELADA GRAN CLAUSTRO BRUT NATURE CAVA 2011

$29.99 88029

Perelada are Spain's leading cava producers, and this is their leading sparkling wine, the premium cava Gran Claustro. It successfully holds its own against all the top sparklers, mighty champagnes included. Comes in a nifty wooden case.

RIBERA DEL DUERO

Located on the banks of the Duero River, this is one of the oldest wine producing regions in the world. Low rainfall, 40-degree days and chilly nights are not uncommon, all of which concentrates the flavours in the grapes. Tempranillo (known here as Tinto Fino) dominates production. Here the speciality is milk-fed lamb, cooked in large wood-fired ovens akin to the Italian pizza oven and accompanied by a bowl of lettuce and a bottle of the local vino.

PROTOS

RIBERA DEL DUERO ROBLE 2013

$16.99 88069

CASE OF 12 $15.99 A BOTTLE

Located at the foot of the stunning Peñafiel Castle, Protos are the trailblazers of the Ribera del Duero region. Made from Tempranillo, Roble refers to the wine having had a short stay in oak. Poised, with a rich, spicy character and excellent fruit weight.

CEPA 21

RIBERA DEL DUERO HITO 2013

$19.99 87761

CASE OF 12 $17.99 A BOTTLE

The third generation of the Moro family have side-stepped the Old World charm one finds in Emilio Moro's top cuvées to create a more modern style, using Tempranillo fruit and new American oak. Fruit-driven, silky, seductive.

SEI SOLO

RIBERA DEL DUERO PRELUDIO 2013

The personal project of Aalto co-founder, Javier Zaccagini. Tempranillo fruit, 60-year-old vines, natural yeasts and seasoned French oak. Complex and terroir-driven, with concentrated characters of dark fruits, chocolate and vanilla. Lovely wine.

MONTSANT

Montserrat is a serrated, multi-peaked range protecting the DOs of Montsant and Priorat and providing them with a unique microclimate. Montsant is the broader DO that surrounds Priorat. They make great value Catalonian wines there, somewhat akin to a baby Priorat, and offering a glimpse into the style of the other DO that lies at its heart.

FINCA CUCÓ MONTSANT TINTO 2015

$16.99 87820

CASE OF 6 $14.99 A BOTTLE

In Montsant the resident varieties are Carignan, Grenache and Syrah. Hand harvested, traditionally fermented and aged for only a short period in oak, this evokes bright red fruits and dried herbs with perfect balance and an innate charm.

PRIORAT

At the heart of Montsant is one of Spain's oldest DOs, Priorat, and the village of Gratallops. Formerly in a state of abandonment and disrepair, its dark, intense, Grenache-based wines have set the world alight, and rocketed this tiny, rugged, challenging region into a heady orbit all its own, thanks to the likes of Alvaro Palacios and René Barbier, who saw the potential and instigated its rejuvenation.

ALVARO PALACIOS PRIORAT CAMINS DEL PRIORAT 2015

$27.00 88035

CASE OF 12 $25.00 A BOTTLE

A blend of Carignan, Garnacha and small portions of Cabernet and Syrah, bottled unfiltered. Dense plum and berry aromas are embellished by notes of spice and pepper. Ripe, beautifully integrated and enhanced by a silky, savoury texture.

ALVARO PALACIOS PRIORAT LES TERRASSES 2014

$57.90 88066

CASE OF 12 $55.90 A BOTTLE

A brilliant ruby-red wine with a complex aromatic bouquet of ripe, spice-accented dark fruits, violet and smoky oak. On the palate, it builds to reveal vibrant blackberry and boysenberry flavours with subtle herbal and oak notes framed by firm tannins.

THE ALBARIZA SOILS OF JEREZ

JEREZ

We're in the south, where it resonates with flamenco and paella. Cádiz is Sherry Central (the region, not the sun-soaked town itself). Within it lies Jerez which, with some Anglicising, became sherry. These wines are largely a product of the Palomino grape grown in bushes in the unique chalky white albariza soil that sizzles under the scorching sun. Power and depth occur as if by magic, as does the remarkable finesse that, combined, make them fascinating, absorbing and wondrous to drink.

LA GUITA JEREZ MANZANILLA SHERRY 375ML

$16.99 89855

A famous Manzanilla, fresh, medium-weighted, dry and slightly tangy, with salty nuances and nutty mineral notes. A superb aperitif, you drink it chilled.

VALDESPINO JEREZ INOCENTE FINO DRY SHERRY 375ML

$17.99 89827

CASE OF 12 $15.99 A BOTTLE

Pronounced yeast and rock salt notes on the nose. Stone-dry, but packed with flavour, it's beautifully balanced, quite weighty and remarkably fresh.

VALDESPINO JEREZ EL CANDADO PEDRO XIMÉNEZ SHERRY 375ML

Louis Roederer

Creators of the glorious Cristal, beloved bubbly of rappers and royalty alike, the Louis Roederer champagne house came into being in 1776, around the same time a nascent America was struggling to stand up in its cot. The serious timeline involved in that statement adds an unassailable aura of authenticity to the proceedings; let's face it, any family that can hold a business together for almost two-and-a-half centuries has to have something going for it.

The visionary Louis Roederer inherited the house in 1833 and set about acquiring some of Champagne's grand cru vineyards, an entirely original approach in those times. While the other houses purchased their grapes, he set about learning how to grow them himself, gaining insights into the characteristics of each parcel and gradually acquiring the finest plots.

In 1876, his son and successor, Louis Roederer II, developed the first ever prestige cuvée, Cristal. In fine French tradition, Roederer also had, from the 1930s, their own dynamic widow running things: the formidable Camille Olry-Roederer was owner of one of the most notable horse-racing stables in the world and famous for the parties she regularly held in the family's Hotel Particulier in Reims.

Today the company is managed by her great-grandson, Frédéric Rouzaud, as it draws on a rich palette from the three Champagne districts, the Montagne de Reims, the Vallée de la Marne, and the Côte des Blancs. With two-thirds of their grape requirements under company ownership, the increasingly biodynamic Roederer have a great deal of control when it comes to the quality of their product.

Operating under the ethos, 'the better the vine, the better the wine' their vineyards are meticulously maintained and well-honed traditions adhered to. Roederer themselves pay homage to 'those people in the vineyards and cellars who daily orchestrate the score for a great champagne.'

GIN AND...

EAST IMPERIAL: A COMPLETELY DIFFERENT TONIC EXPERIENCE

The creation of Kiwi G&T fans, Tony Burt and Kevin Law-Smith, the rapidly expanding East Imperial produce a range of premium mixers that includes four styles of tonic water, taking things back to a more original and authentic expression of what tonic water was all about before it was hijacked by the large fizzy companies. No soft drink, East Imperial's signature tonic water is inspired by a 1903 family recipe, small batched and blended using all natural ingredients sourced from Asia combined with New Zealand artesian spring water, the traditional-style production ensuring the botanical subtleties of the premium gins are protected. The Old World Tonic is low in sugar and pairs beautifully with aromatic and herbaceous gins. For those London dry styles or citrus-forward gins, the Burma Tonic is a more contemporary expression with a higher cane sugar and quinine component, the Grapefruit Tonic is a blend of Southeast Asian pomelo and Ruby Red grapefruit, while the Yuzu Tonic is based on the tart, aromatic citrus fruit of the same name found in northern Asia.

Meet the Parsons

No, not the folk above – they are Chapel Hill's Chief Winemaker Michael Fragos and Viticulturist Rachel Steer. The Parson is the smart, rejuvenated range of Chapel Hill wines known in a past life as The Parson's Nose, its ranks expanded with a nifty new Grenache, Shiraz, Mourvèdre blend. It also sports a new-look, not to mention rather sexy, label featuring the iconic window from the historic ironstone chapel built on the property in 1865. What hasn't changed is the absolute gobsmacking quality and value for money that Chapel Hill have been dishing out for years. Their award-winning wines are outstanding examples of art of winemaking, the smart new livery beautifully complementing that craftsmanship. Buy the case, we say.

GORGEOUS GROWERS

Previously an unknown quantity around here, there have always been Grower champagnes produced in Champagne, and many of those we are now importing have been making it for generations. With aficionados looking more and more for something different, though, the whole Grower thing has really taken off. If it's individuality and character you're after, the Grower champagnes are well worth the investment. As smaller scale grape grower/winemakers lacking the gargantuan resources of the big players, they are more reliant on the characters to be found within particular vintages and locations, and some would say they are all the better for it.

Instore and online you'll find newly replenished stocks of our initial shipments plus two new producers, Lilbert-Fils and Paul Bara. Located in Cremant, the fifth-generation Lilbert are 100% Grand Cru, tiny and often hard to find, thanks to an ardent global following snapping them up. While Lilbert are all about Chardonnay, Paul Bara are Pinot Noir-focused. Also Grand Cru, they are located in the superbly monikered village of Bouzy.
