DON'T DRINK

We're off to what some would say was wine's spiritual home, that oasis of oenology, virtuoso of the vine, grande dame of the grape, France (undoubtedly their opinion, grudgingly, perhaps, ours too). Egged on by the Greeks and the Romans, they've been at this winemaking business for a while now, and they've become (some would say) annoyingly good at it. Indeed, it doesn't take long to uncover the fact that many of the world's finest vinous practitioners take their inspiration from the holy grails of Burgundian Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, the legendary reds and the sweet wines of Bordeaux, the aromatic wonders of Alsace, the spicy opulence and deft balance of the Rhône Valley's blended wines, the delicious delicacy of Chablisian Chardonnay, the smoky, mineral elegance of the Loire Valley Sauvignons, or perhaps the deceptively pale yet dazzlingly weighted Provençal rosés. And really, who can forget the effervescent pinnacle that is French champagne? It just goes on.

So, ignoring the self-satisfied look on the dials of the French, we're off, then, on a quick jaunt around the Gallic provinces. Those damnable people and their wine: you'd think they invented the stuff. In the end, though, it's a fait accompli; for sheer class in the glass, they are the vinous benchmark by which we all measure ourselves.

CHÂTEAU LA SERRE
SAINT-ÉMILION GRAND CRU 2014
$79.00 42543

The south-facing Château La Serre was erected in the 17th century and procured in the 1950s by the d'Arfeuille family, who are still in residence. The vine mix is 80% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Franc. La Serre's (relatively) modestly-priced wines offer particularly good value in the better vintages. A fresh, elegant style displaying a floral nose and silky raspberry and black cherry fruit complemented by a touch of savoury and a gentle finish. Pop it away for at least another 3-4 years.

ESK VALLEY WINEMAKER, GORDON RUSSELL

Motoring south on Highway 5 from Taupo to Napier, the first sign that you have reached Hawkes Bay wine country is the welcoming sight of rows of vineyards lining the roads through Eskdale and on to Bay View. Tucked into the hillside is Esk Valley Estate, regarded as one of the best boutique producers in the country. The original winery was established in 1933 by Robert Bird, and under the management of two successive generations it grew to become a major player.

In 1987 the winery came under the extensive umbrella of Kiwi legends Villa Maria, from where it is run as an independent Hawkes Bay winery with its own vineyards and winemaking team, overseen by the much lauded Gordon Russell. Despite extensive upgrading, the strong buildings at its heart have been retained, including the 85-year-old concrete, open-top fermentation tanks.

Appointed in 1993, the award-winning Russell has seriously elevated Esk Valley's status, with a 'Winemaker of the Year' title firmly under his belt. The winery produces some of the finest reds in the country, and in recent years has built a strong reputation for its unique white wines.

BURGUNDY

The wines produced from this stretch of vinous real estate are among the world's greatest. The only simple thing about Burgundy is that if it's red it's Pinot Noir or Gamay, and if it's white it's Chardonnay (more or less), and from there on it gets trickier. Inheritance laws have seen vineyards divided into ever smaller family parcels, and within a sea of small producers, it is not uncommon for a single vineyard to have numerous owners.

DOMAINE DE BELLENE PREMIER CRU
LES PEUILLETS SAVIGNY-LES-BEAUNE 2010

$59.99 42819

CASE OF 6 $58.99 A BOTTLE

Domaine de Bellene is 100% organic and carbon neutral. Considered one of Burgundy's top wine-makers, owner Nicolas Potel uses donkeys and horses for the vineyard work. The premier cru fruit shows balance, restraint and a smooth elegance.

BOURGOGNE HAUTES CÔTES DE NUITS 2013

$32.99 43140

MÂCON-VILLAGES BLANC 2015

$17.99 43745

CASE OF 12 $16.99 A BOTTLE

Chardonnay fruit is sourced from Mâcon. Not quite as lean as a Chablis, it does sit most at home in that group, at the broader end, with a touch more oak.

GEORGES DUBOEUF
BEAUJOLAIS-VILLAGES 2015

$16.99 43891

Brilliantly priced wine from the King of Beaujolais. Produced from the strong and fruity Gamay variety, the Villages model is mid-range Beaujolais, a step up from the Nouveau. Soft, fruity and succulent.

SÉGUINOT-BORDET'S PREMIER CRU FOURCHAUME VINEYARD

CHABLIS

The oyster-shelled terroir that is one of the key components in Chablis' unique profile is now protected by law, as enshrined and important to the wines as the marginal and northerly aspect of Chablis' location. Only one variety counts here, and that is Chardonnay, which thrives in the same chalk soils that run through Champagne. Chablis is indeed Chardonnay in one of its purest expressions, the deliciously lean styles unmistakable in their provenance and restraint.

$24.99 40471

CASE OF 12 $23.99 A BOTTLE

Only 3,000 bottles produced off 55-year-old vines. A cascade of fresh florals precedes the mineral-accented stonefruit and citrus notes, seamlessly blended and beautifully balanced by fresh acidity.

ALSACE

The spiritual home of the aromatic expression, this battle-scarred region of overwhelming beauty is home to some of France's most profound wines. While nowadays in French hands, the region's German bloodlines still flex their muscle. Within its long and narrow confines, a host of geological combinations produce a stunning array of flavours, fragrances and textures, setting the benchmark for Pinot Gris, Riesling, Pinot Blanc, Muscat and Gewürztraminer.

THE RHÔNE VALLEY

The Rhône twists and turns down the map in a sinewy slalom of picturesque villages and steeply terraced vineyards, in the north offering up some of Syrah's finest expressions. The south plays host to Grenache and the Rhône's peerless blended wines, Vacqueyras, Vinsobres and Châteauneuf-du-Pape. In between are the rushing red rivers of generic, great-value Côtes du Rhône wines. While 95% of Rhône production is red, there is delight to be found in the floral fragrances of a Muscat Beaumes-de-Venise or the lush apricot and crème fraîche nuances of a Condrieu.

BORDEAUX

Reinforced by its imposing châteaux, the aristocratic Bordeaux holds court at the centre of France's vinous universe. It is indeed the largest AOC area in France, with a staggering 86,000ha of vineyard plantings and around 60 million cases produced annually. When combined with the peerless pedigree of the world famous reds, the whites of Graves and the seductive Sauternes make this a region you cannot ignore.

The second wine of Gruaud-Larose is intense but charming, luxuriant aromas of plum and cassis nuancing the vibrant, deliciously smooth palate.

THE LOIRE VALLEY

With its 80-plus appellations, the Loire is a treasure trove of vinous expressions, from the Sauvignon Blanc-derived, smoky, mineral-tinged Sancerre and aromatic, steely-flavoured Pouilly-Fumé to the equally eminent wines of Vouvray, fashioned from Chenin Blanc and ranging from austere to opulent. The Loire offers a quality/bargain metric that, quite frankly, nowhere else in France can match. The best expressions taste like a million bucks, and cost a fraction of that.

PASCAL JOLIVET
SANCERRE 2015

$24.99 40978

CASE OF 6 $23.99 A BOTTLE

An alluring bouquet of spicy and floral aromas with underlying notes of quince and honey. Medium-dry, the fruit flavours balanced by a swirl of mineral.

SOUTH OF FRANCE

Down along France's southern coast, where the Med leans enticingly into the Golfe du Lion, the restrictions of the Appellation Contrôlée system in general give way to a freedom around vine cultivation. The benign climate delivers long, sunny days for ripening, while a moderating coastal influence keeps much disease at bay. Formerly known for its cheap bulk-style approach, the current wave of winemakers are more intent on quality and extolling the attributes of their terroir.

GROS-TOLLOT
LA 50/50 2014

$27.99 43115

Burgundians Anne Gros and Jean-Paul Tollot thrive in the South of France. Their 25-year-old Grenache vines are blended with Syrah and fruit from 35-year-old Carignan, matured in stainless steel to create a concentrated, fruit-driven, refreshing table wine.

PROVENCE

The first Roman province to be established outside Italy, Provence has been turning out the vino since at least 600 BC. Stretched along the Mediterranean coast, it is best known for its flagship rosé wines, but also produces excellent spicy, flavoursome reds as well as small quantities of white wine. The crisp, refreshing rosés have gained an international following and account for the majority of Provence's total production.

THE GALLIC SPIRIT

STYLE FRANÇAIS

The French may not have invented wine, but they have pioneered practically every conceivable style, and in doing so have set the benchmark for quality and influenced winemakers throughout the world. And as with the likes of Italy and Spain, they have an innate and enlightened understanding that wine is a companion to food.

Although the French are inextricably linked with wine, they have at the same time created a diverse range of alternative alcoholic beverages offering a wide variety of aromatic flavours and rich textures. From the controversial Absinthe to the regal cognacs, their spirits and liqueurs have stamped their dominance on the world. The likes of calvados, vermouth and pastis can be enjoyed as aperitifs to stimulate the palate either prior to or after a meal.

SALON + DELAMOTTE

S U B L I M E   S I S T E R S

Salon and Delamotte are two exceptional houses with a common aim: perfection. The stables are made separately at different premises but share the same viticultural and philosophical approach.

The rare and legendary Salon produces tiny quantities of a single champagne from a single variety and a single cru vineyard, and only in a few select years, at a rate of around four vintages per decade. Salon Le Mesnil is a wine of such singularity it makes anything else seem mass-produced. It is named after the tiny walled Grand Cru vineyard from which the fruit is sourced, Le Mesnil-sur-Oger in the Côtes des Blancs. Made solely from Chardonnay fruit, the Salon wines are endowed with the most extraordinary structure, enabling them to age gracefully, often several decades from vintage.

Established in 1760, the refined and elegant Delamotte is one of Champagne's best kept secrets. The majority of its vineyards are Chardonnay and all are Grand Cru status. In 1988, Delamotte joined forces with Salon. Though managed separately, both enjoy the stewardship of Didier Depond, who oversees all aspects of the two houses, which are located side-by-side in Les Mesnil. This familial spirit has its advantages: the stratospheric Salon is made only from the very best vintages, and in tiny quantities. In the years it is not made, the first right to its fruit goes to Delamotte.

A TASTE OF SPAIN

DOMINIO DE TARES

Established in the 1990s and widely considered to be one of the most exciting wineries within the Bierzo D.O., Dominio de Tares are infants in Spanish wine terms, but giants in their approach, using ancient vineyards and painstakingly artisan-like practices to bring to bear Bierzo expressions as pure and characterful as can be coaxed from the multiple microclimates in which they operate. With a fierce focus on improving vintage by vintage and harnessing some of the best oenological minds in Spain, they are a benchmark winery for their practices. Their goal is to introduce to the world the virtues of the ancient, indigenous Mencía variety, and their first wines, released in 2000, gained universal acclaim. The Dominio de Tares wines represent a pure expression of terroir that have, along with the likes of Alvaro Palacios, put Bierzo firmly on the global wine-map.
