Hello from Autumn. We thought we'd instil a bit of Spanish fire into the proceedings just to get us all acclimatized. Not that the summer we just had left us with much acclimatizing to do... Anyway, we don't really need an excuse to drink Spanish – they do a great job of channelling that wonderful European sensibility that says life is all about putting the right wine with the right food, and the right company, and just going for it. In one of the oldest vinous cultures in Europe, food and wine are deeply instilled within the Spanish soul, so we're heading off on a journey through the various regions to cherry-pick the best of the best. Join us. There are plenty of other items to pique your interest, too; among them, we profile Marlborough's Jackson Estate, along with the very intriguing Pyramid Valley, check out Sam Neill's collection of special Pinot Noir wines celebrating his 20 years on the job, take in Northland's stunning boutique vineyard, The Landing, prepare ourselves for World Whisky Day and make some room for our Autumn wine selection and our May Top 10. Have a happy May.

VALDESPINO JEREZ COLISEO AMONTILLADO VORS SHERRY

375ML $349.00 89857

V.O.R.S. is shorthand for Vinum Optimum Rare Signatum, aka Very Old Rare Sherry, with Valdespino's Solera for this sublime wine established around the end of the 19th century. Coliseo is extremely rare, coming from a solera that contains just five sherry butts (casks). Around 60 years old, it is the apogee of the Amontillado style. An intense minerality and salty tang emerge from the aromatic, concentrated, nutty and spicy palate. Truly exquisite, this is one of the greats. 99/100 Robert Parker

JACKSON ESTATE

Jackson Estate has an almost unparalleled affinity with the Marlborough region, their connection to the land stretching back over 160 years. John and Warren Stichbury, great grandsons of Adam Jackson, after whom Jacksons Road is named, established the winery's first vineyard in 1988. Their vision and determination has resulted in the creation of a collection of outstanding estate-grown wines. As Head Winemaker Matt Patterson-Green puts it: "Our winemaking is not recipe wine-making. We utilise intelligent parts of technology while still maintaining a traditional approach to produce wines that are a true expression of our vineyards and the region."

RIOJA

FINCA NUEVA

Finca Nueva is the younger sibling of Rioja's highly respected, almost mythical Allende winery, the creation of one of Spain's finest winemakers, Miguel Ángel de Gregorio, and his sister Mercedes. Finca Nueva was created as a device to shrug aside the constraints of Riojan tradition and allow the talented Miguel Ángel a wider scope for his skills. While the Allende wines are serious in nature – tannic wines derived from vines immersed in iron-rich clay – the Finca Nueva expressions are fruitier and more immediately accessible, grown on largely calcareous soils in Briones and crafted for a new generation of wine drinkers.

RIOJA RESERVA 2010

$19.99

The Reserva is the jewel in the Finca Nueva crown. The Tempranillo fruit was matured for 24 months in French barriques before being bottled unfiltered and then bottle-aged prior to release. Balanced and aromatic, the soft, vanillan-edged cherry and plum characters encased in a velvet-lined finish.

87979 MARQUÉS DE CÁCERES
RIOJA ROSADO 2017
$15.99

The leading producer of modern Rioja, M de C have done wonders for Spain's wine rep; their quality's great, the value spot on. Tempranillo and Grenache blended to create a superbly aromatic, forward rosé.

- 88014 SOLAR VIEJO COSECHA 2015 $14.99
- 89814 FINCA NUEVA VENDIMIA 2016 $15.99
- 87971 MARQUÉS DE CÁCERES CRIANZA 2014 $19.99

88009 SOLAR VIEJO
RIOJA CRIANZA 2015
$17.99

Historic, trend-setting Riojan house. Tempranillo fruit takes charge, with notes of cherry and plum, whispers of leather, tobacco and spice, and a hint of liquorice, cocoa and vanilla. Superb value

87271 CAMPO VIEJO
RIOJA RESERVA 2012
$19.99

A smoothly elegant Tempranillo-dominant red with a lingering palate of blackberries, blueberries, plums and floral characters embellished by notes of liquorice and vanilla. Deliciously smoky, toasty and spicy.

77201 LAN
RIOJA RESERVA 2010
$24.99

This is traditional Rioja and a Reserva to boot. With eight years now on the clock there's a ton of dried fruits and spice on the nose, leading to an opulently warm palate. Great with a hearty chorizo stew.

87802 ALLENDE
RIOJA 2010
$36.99 CASE OF 6 $34.99 A BOTTLE

With a flicker of minerality at the edges of the bright blackberry fruits and a tickle of spice, this premium Rioja from Allende is a dense yet pure expression, modern and vibrantly edgy.

87780 SAN VICENTE
RIOJA 2014
$59.99

A brilliantly modern take on Rioja, paying little attention to the traditional references of crianza, reserva, etc. Fruit forward, without the heavy influence of oak and the oxidative nature it stamps on the wine.

87740 EL PUNTIDO
RIOJA 2014
$59.99

A single vineyard expression of Tempranillo from Rioja Alavesa, the northernmost of the three Riojan sub-regions and source of some of its best wines. Showing impressive power and intensity of fruit.

RIOJA BAJA

PALACIOS REMONDO

Álvaro Palacios, the man who has revolutionized Spain's Bierzo and Priorat regions, took over the Riojan family vineyards established in 1945 by his father, José Palacios Remondo, and from 2000 on has tipped them upside down in similar fashion. A perfectionist with irrepressible energy, Álvaro lowered yields, heightened quality and filled his bottles with colourful, high-quality expressions of the historic region. Palacios Remondo own all their vineyards, a rarity in Rioja, and so have complete control, their vines now boasting some serious age.

RIOJA BAJA LA VENDIMIA 2016

$17.99

CASE OF 12 $15.99 A BOTTLE

A juicy, fruit-driven 50-50 blend of Garnacha and Tempranillo from organically farmed vineyards, fermented in stainless steel and matured in oak for four months. The vines grow low to the ground, the Spanish sun beats down and this gets seriously ripe. Spicy, succulent and abundantly charming.

88054 PALACIOS REMONDO
RIOJA BAJA LA MONTESA 2014

$24.99 CASE OF 12 $22.99 A BOTTLE

88668 ÁLVARO PALACIOS
RIOJA BAJA QUIÑÓN DE VALMIRA 2015
$499.00

The grafting of old clones and years of toil by the visionary Álvaro, all to restore the glorious potential of Rioja Baja's Garnacha bush vines and heady terroir. Sublime florals and a seductively ripe palate.

BIERZO

DOMINIO DE TARES

The somewhat lyrical Dominio de Tares say their wines are of 'great equilibrium' and 'cradled in noble woods.' Responsible for putting the once moribund region of Bierzo back on the map, they're just over a decade old, an infant in Spanish wine terms. However, they utilise ancient vineyards and painstakingly artisan-like practices to create expressions as pure and characterful as can be coaxed from the multiple microclimates in which they operate. With their fierce focus on improving vintage by vintage and harnessing of some of the best oenological minds in Spain, they are a winery to watch.

88115 DOMINIO DE TARES
BIERZO BALTOS MENCÍA 2015

$19.99

CASE OF 6 $17.99 A BOTTLE

Old-vine Mencía grapes deliver generous warmth and vibrancy. Aged four months in French and American oak and a further six in bottle, aromas of blackberry and cranberry are tinged with liquorice and oak. Spice and supple tannins add the finishing touches to a lingering, ripely flavoured palate.

88114 DOMINIO DE TARES
BIERZO GODELLO 2015

$26.99 CASE OF 6 $24.99 A BOTTLE

Godello is an indigenous white variety. The viticulturists drop fruit by hand to deliver a low-yielding, concentrated expression displaying rich tropical fruit characters, nutty influences and a creamy lushness.

BIERZO PETALOS 2015

$24.99 CASE OF 12 $22.99 A BOTTLE

PAZO DE BARRANTES

RÍAS BAIXAS

PAZO DE BARRANTES

Home since 1511 to the Counts of Creixell and their families (also owners of Rioja labels Marqués de Murrieta and Castillo Ygay), the Galician palace, Pazo Barrantes, is surrounded by 12 hectares of Albariño vines. All the vines are trained on a traditional high trellis system to assist ripening and guard against mildew and rot. The white variety has been cultivated here for generations, but it wasn't until 1991 that the property gained its beautifully appointed high-tech winery and was turned into an estate designed specifically for the production of Albariño wines.

81017 PAZO BARRANTES
RÍAS BAIXAS ALBARIÑO 2015

$29.99

This fresh, high-quality white indigenous varietal is almost Viognier-like with its creamy peaches and dried apricot notes. The substantial palate weight and texture of the Pazo Barrantes Albariño means its rich and concentrated style is capable of aging successfully for many years. A serious wine.

81082 CONTRAPUNTO
RÍAS BAIXAS ALBARIÑO 2017
$17.99

An early-drinking Albariño with a rounded fruity presence and vibrant, well integrated acidity. An aromatic nose of peach and tropical fruits enhances a floral-tinged palate displaying a hint of citrus.

PRIORAT

Álvaro Palacios and others rejuvenated this historic region, famous for its powerful red wines and unique terroir. There have been further changes: Spanish classification systems put wines into categories based on how they are made. Unlike their French counterparts, the reference to site was not previously there. Thanks to lobbying and careful persuasion from the likes of Álvaro, there is now a recognised level of village wine in Spain, Priorat having a large number of its villages classified.

87820 FINCA CUCÓ
MONTSANT TINTO 2015
$17.99 CASE OF 6 $15.99 A BOTTLE

While this is not Priorat, the Montsant D.O. surrounds it. Grenache and Carignan, aged for only a short period in oak, evoking bright red fruits and dried herbs with perfect balance and an innate charm.

88045 CASA GRAN DEL SIURANA
PRIORAT CRUOR 2012
$37.99 CASE OF 6 $35.99 A BOTTLE

A magnificent property, where Garnacha and Carignan love the slaty mineral soils. A blend of Garnacha, Samsó and Cabernet Sauvignon aged for 12 months in French oak, the Cruor is one of their classics.

RIBERA DEL DUERO

EMILIO MORO

This family-owned winery, with its 120-year-old history, is remarkable in many ways, not least for the riches it delivers in the bottle. With vines planted in 1932 at vertigo-inducing heights 700 metres above sea level, they already have a head start in the old vine and unique terroir stakes. Add to that the use of a very pure Tinto Fino clone transplanted from their earliest vines and a family ethic that looks to instil their heart and soul within each wine, and you begin to understand that you're drinking something pretty special.

87550 EMILIO MORO
RIBERA DEL DUERO FINCA RESALSO 2016

CASE OF 12 $15.99 A BOTTLE

This family-owned winery with its 120-year history is remarkable in many ways, not least for the riches it delivers in the bottle. Top-flight Tinto Fino fruit delivers a surge of violet and mineral-tinged berryfruit and spice within a solid structure. From younger vines, with a few months in oak, this is to be enjoyed now, accompanied by a few tidy tapas.

87751 EMILIO MORO
RIBERA DEL DUERO 2013

With a foot in both the traditional and modern camps, this is opulently bold and dense. Off old vines, with a touch of the new introduced via the fresh American oak mixed in with the older French barrels.

RIBERA DEL DUERO ROBLE 2013
$19.99 CASE OF 12 $17.99 A BOTTLE

Protos are the trailblazers of the Ribera del Duero region. Made from Tempranillo, Roble refers to the wine having had a short stay in oak. Poised, with a rich, spicy character and excellent fruit weight.

81057 ALIÓN
RIBERA DEL DUERO 2013

88079 PROTOS ROSADO 2017 $16.99

TORO

TESO LA MONJA

The Eguren family have been cultivating vines and producing wine for five generations, imprinting their own personal stamp on the six wineries currently under their care within the DOs of Rioja and Toro. Via their sustainably operated Teso la Monja winery they have been instrumental in transforming the Toro appellation, originally seduced by the vineyard's pre-phylloxera vines and deep roots to venture beyond their Riojan roots.

TORO ALMIRÉZ 2015

$36.99

CASE OF 6 $34.99 A BOTTLE

Made from Tinta de Toro (suggest in Toro that it's Tempranillo, and you better know where the door is). Despite all that, this is Tempranillo, elegant and powerful, small-scale, sustainably produced, aged for 12 months in French oak. Gorgeous.

EMPORDÀ

PERELADA

The Perelada castle has been involved with winemaking since Carmelite monks were there in the 14th century. With viticultural activities revitalised in the 1920s by Don Miguel Mateu, and much fame achieved in the 1960s, Perelada is one of Spain's most significant producers, the wines a scintillating blend of centuries' worth of knowledge and cutting-edge modernism. They source their fruit from the DOs of Penedès and Empordà, and while focus is on the famous cava of the former DO, the company also craft a range of premium-quality still wines to augment their sparkling portfolio.

EMPORDÀ JARDINS NEGRE 2015

CASE OF 6 $14.99 A BOTTLE

A tribute to the castle gardens, designed by Parisian François Duvillers in the mid-19th century. The Jardins is an easy-drinking blend of Garnatxa Negre, Syrah and Samsó grapes, boasting a spice-edged nose and an enveloping palate of smooth silkiness, with a lovely purity and vibrancy.

VALENCIA

MAS DE BAZÁN

Located off the eastern coast of Spain in the DO of Utiel-Requena, this winery was purchased by Agro de Bazán in 1995, when the opportunity to buy this historic cellar dating back to 1905, and use it to house one of the region's most modern wineries proved too good to pass up. The beautiful building now brims with technologically advanced equipment, and Mas de Bazán is amassing a solid rep for its excellent red wines.

81087 MAS DE BAZÁN
UTIEL-REQUENA RESERVA BOBAL 2011

$21.99

CASE OF 6 $19.99 A BOTTLE

Made from the indigenous Bobal, this wine comes off low-yielding vines that are almost a century old. With fragrant red berries dominating the nose and palate, it is superbly concentrated, displaying sweet tannins and a flex of acid muscle.

JEREZ

SHERRY CENTRAL

We're in the south, where it resonates with flamenco and paella. Cádiz is Sherry Central (the region, not the sun-soaked town itself). Within it lies Jerez which, with some Anglicising, became sherry. These wines are largely a product of the Palomino grape grown in bushes in the unique chalky white albariza soil that sizzles under the scorching sun. Power and depth occur as if by magic, as does the remarkable finesse that, combined, make them fascinating, absorbing and wondrous to drink.

There's very little winemaker Hugh Crichton doesn't know about Chardonnay. Having tasted this, it's hard to see how Vidal make money here – top quality fruit, oak aging and plenty of fastidious care sounds more like a $20+ wine.

MIKE & CLAUDIA WEERSING

PYRAMID VALLEY CLAUDIA & MIKE'S LAST HURRAH

Located in Waikari, North Canterbury, Pyramid Valley was founded in 2000 by Claudia and Mike Weersing. A 2.2-hectare biodynamic vineyard planted with four separate blocks of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, it is a truly unique site with its rare clay limestone soils so ideal for these varieties. You'll note there is none of the Pinot Noir from the 2017 vintage; instead, just a tiny amount of rosé; such a small quantity, in fact, that it has only been bottled in magnums. Such are the trials and tribulations of biodynamics – 2017 did not prove to be an easy vintage at Pyramid Valley.

With Claudia and Mike officially leaving behind their iconic winery and its tiny, but globally-lauded production at the end of May, Pyramid Valley will become the new obsession of Steve Smith MW, co-founder of Aotearoa NZ Fine Wine Estates in 2017 with US entrepreneur and environmentalist Brian Sheth. With the new owners well-known for their vinous abilities and love of fine wines, the winery looks to be in good hands going forward.

We are delighted to have Claudia visiting us this month, in both Auckland and Wellington, to host a tasting of these superb wines.

TWO PADDOCKS

PROPRIETOR'S RESERVES

The 2016 vintage celebrates the 20th release for Two Paddocks founder and proprietor, Sam Neill. Certified organic, estate-grown made by a winemaking team that has been with Neill for nearly twenty years. "We grow our premium Pinot Noir entirely on our four small vineyards in Central Otago. In some exceptional vintages, listening carefully, we realize that one of these may have something extraordinary to say in its own right. It is only then that we will make one of these very rare single vineyard wines." Sam Neill

WHO MAKE WINE

Sunday the 13th of May, that's the day to give your mum a lovely wine made by another mum. Not just any old wines, either; these are brilliant vinos made by clever women who, somewhere in the middle of everything, have found time to undertake the critical enterprise of bringing up the next generation. We don't know how they manage all that, but we're glad they do.

WORLD WHISKY DAY

Every year, the world gathers on the third Saturday of May in praise of what is arguably its most precise and complex alcoholic beverage. The 19th of May is World Whisky Day, a global celebration of the water of life, or Uisge Beatha in the old tongue. With events taking place all around the globe, from Tokyo to Reykjavik, celebrations of whisky will be in full swing. At Glengarry, we've called in all our favours, harangued and twisted arms to ensure we can have a veritable army of whisky producers in residence at our Victoria Park store for this auspicious event. Over 80 malts will be available to taste, from Scotland, Ireland, America, Canada, Japan and New Zealand. With so many recent new and exciting arrivals, the timing couldn't be better. Join us for what will be a fantastic day.

The Royal Warrant

When it's wedding time at the palace, it's pretty handy to have one of these, as you may end up supplying the fizz, so to speak. It just so happens that there are some marital goings-on coming up in the month of May. Who knew? It's also true that all of the champagnes below possess said warrant, so we were wondering if, perhaps, one of them would be so lucky. It might pay to hedge your bets and have one of each on hand. Just in case.
